Highlights from the District Service Cabinet Meeting (4/8/09)

26th Pct (See Stats)
30th Pct (See Stats)

PSA-6 reported a decrease in crime by 12%; Enforcement has been increased for the warm season approaching. 166 arrest have been made year to date, camera units were installed at Manhattanville.

Patrol Borough Manhattan North (See Stats)

Parks Dept. reported the removal of 1,000 sq. feet of graffiti from Parks in District No. 9.

Human Rights Commission reported that April is Fair Housing Month. Fair Housing means that you have a right to live wherever you choose and be treated according to the same rules as everyone else. Fair housing laws promote equal opportunity and prohibit discriminatory practices that can unfairly limit the housing choices of numerous groups. The NYC Commission on Human Rights enforces those laws in the five boroughs.

The NYC Commission on Human Rights is a HUD-approved Housing Counseling Agency and provides the following services:

- One-on-One mortgage counseling as a free service for families or individuals in danger of losing their homes to foreclosure;
- Available to meet with local Groups, Businesses, and Housing Associations about Fair Housing protections and disability rights

Fair Housing "It's the Law" Booklets are available are in the Community Board No. 9 Office

$20

OFF THE PURCHASE OF A 1-INCH CALIPER OR LARGER TREE AT PARTICIPATING NEW YORK CITY NURSERIES AND GARDEN CENTERS

tree coupon program presented by: BNP PARIBAS The bank for a changing world

millionTreesNYC

A PLANYC INITIATIVE WITH NYC PARKS AND NEW YORK RESTORATION PROJECT

Experience the health, environmental and economic benefits that trees provide New York City by planting a tree in your front or backyard. Bring your One in a Million tree coupon to a participating New York City nursery or garden center for a $20 discount toward the purchase of a 1-inch caliper or larger tree. Plant a tree and be one in a million!

Who can use the One in a Million tree coupon?

The One in A Million $20 tree coupon is available only to residents of New York City who pledge to plant a tree in one of the city's five boroughs. The coupon is for retail purchases only, and cannot be used to purchase trees for resale by contractors, wholesalers, or other nurseries. The One in a Million tree coupon offer is valid from April 1, 2009 to June 15, 2009, and is limited to one coupon redemption per household during the spring planting season.

Where do I find the coupon?

Download a One in a Million Tree Coupon online by visiting milliontreesnyc.org/treecoupon. Coupons are also available at participating New York City nurseries and garden centers.

How do I redeem my coupon?

Visit a participating New York City nursery or garden center to receive $20 off the purchase of a 1-inch caliper or larger tree. A list of participating nurseries and garden centers can be found at milliontreesnyc.org/treecoupon. The $20 discount will be processed at the register at the time of sale. The coupon is not a mail-in rebate.

Where can I plant a tree in New York City?

You can plant your tree in your front or backyard. You can also talk to your neighborhood libraries, churches, community centers and schools about planting trees in their lawns.

Not sure what type of tree you want?

Ask your nursery tree expert for suggestions or visit milliontreesnyc.org to learn about the wide variety of tree species available for planting in New York City.. Trees that are susceptible to Asian longhorned beetle, listed as invasive species and that are smaller than 1-inch caliper to not qualify for reimbursement through the One in a Million tree coupon program. Simple tree planting and care instructions come with your tree.
