PURPOSE

A completed Form NYC-2020-C provides documentation that an ERO has been authorized to electronically file Form NYC-3L for a corporation. The officer of the corporation who is authorized to sign the corporation's returns may designate the ERO to electronically sign the return by entering the officer's personal identification number (PIN). The form also authorizes payment of tax due on an electronically submitted return by an automatic clearing house (ACH) debit from a designated checking or savings account of the corporation. You cannot revoke this authorization.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Part A - An authorized officer of the corporation must sign and date the declaration before the ERO transmits the corporation's electronically filed tax return.

Part B - The ERO must complete and sign Part B before transmitting the corporation's electronically filed tax return(s).

Do not mail Form NYC-2020-C to the Department of Finance. The ERO must keep the completed Form NYC-2020-C for three years from the due date of the return or the date the return was filed, whichever is later, and must present it to the Department of Finance upon request.
