CCRB TO HOST 5th ANNUAL YOUTH ADVISORY COUNCIL SUMMIT

NEW YORK – Today, the Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) will host its fifth Youth Advisory Council (YAC) Summit: 2023 Speak Up Speak Out International Summit. The YAC is made up of New Yorkers between the ages of 10-18 who are passionate about improving police community relations. This year, the cohort decided to engage in an international conversation and have invited young representatives from all over the world, including Guatemala, Mexico, Kenya, Nigeria, Zambia and the UK. Please join us tomorrow afternoon for discussion panels on the current state of policing across the world and the youth perspective on what the future should look like.

The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) is the largest police oversight entity in the nation and is empowered to investigate, mediate, prosecute, and recommend disciplinary action for complaints alleging misconduct by NYPD officers. See NYC Charter § 440(c)(1). The agency's jurisdiction includes excessive and unnecessary force, abuse of authority, discourtesy, and use of offensive language. To further this mission, CCRB issues monthly, biannual, and special statistical and qualitative reports analyzing trends and recurring issues arising from the many thousands of civilian complaints it receives each year.
