Michael J. Mansfield
Commissioner/Chair

September 15, 2010

Following discussions with various members of the New Fulton Fish Market community, the Business Integrity Commission has partnered with the New York City Commission on Human Rights to sponsor a special diversity training event entitled “Understanding Our Neighbors.” New York City is known for its tremendous multiculturalism and our Market reflects this diversity. As such, the Business Integrity Commission is committed to fostering tolerance and understanding throughout the Markets. This event represents a unique opportunity to come together as a community and gain a greater knowledge, respect, and appreciation for one another. The training will take place on Thursday, September 23, 2010 at 800 Food Center Drive. It will commence at 9am and will run approximately an hour. Light refreshments will be served.

For further information, please contact Director of Human Resources Darlene Whinfield at: 212 676 6234 or at: dwhinfield@bic.nyc.gov.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Michael J. Mansfield" with a long, sweeping flourish extending to the right.
