Once again, together, we have demonstrated the unity of our communities and organizations by gathering as one to celebrate the career of a true public servant and visionary, Ms. Nadine Whitted. As most of you know, after 40 years of dedicated service as District Manager of Community Board 4, a post she held with both dignity and respect, Ms. Whitted's has decided to retire. It was both an honor and a privilege to share this time with you. I am grateful to each and every one of you who attended the spectacular event held on Thursday, November 3, 2016 at Giando on the Water. Wishing you and yours a peaceful and blessed Holiday Season.

Respectfully yours,
Julie Dent, Ph.D., M.S. Ed.
