

PUBLIC SERVICE PUZZLER

5 MINUTES WITH THE CITY'S CONFLICTS OF INTEREST LAW

This month's Puzzler has a cinematic theme. Think of a movie (it could be your favorite, the one you've seen most recently, a cult classic, etc.) then alter the title so it relates in some way to the conflicts of interest law. Below you can see some examples.

To enter, send your movie title to contest@coib.nyc.gov by March 18. The winner will be chosen a pool of finalists selected by our judges.

FEBRUARY PUZZLER WINNER

Q: What is your City title?

Program Manager of City Assessments at the Department of Education

Q: What do you do in your job?

I manage the implementation of several assessments in schools, including the Gifted & Talented assessment, the Specialized High Schools Admission Test, and Advanced Placement tests.

Q: How long have you been working for the City?

I started working for the DOE as a consultant in 2011 and joined as an employee in 2012.

Q: Name a special interest or hobby!

I don't have much time for hobbies since my son was born in July, but I do manage to read and listen to public radio podcasts during my commute.

Q: What's your favorite thing about City service?

I love working with the families of New York City and breaking down the barriers they often perceive between themselves and City government.
