

I think the Asian community is very well served the way the district is now. I think if you make the District so large with other Asian communities that my interests in my community would not be heard or addressed