I acknowledge and understand that it is illegal to sell tobacco products or herbal cigarettes to any person under the age of 18. I further understand that the sale of tobacco products and herbal cigarettes shall be made only to an individual who demonstrates, by means of a driver's license or other photographic identification card issued by a government agency or educational institution, that the individual is at least 18 years of age.

I acknowledge and understand that my license will be subject to revocation after my second violation within two years, and will be revoked upon my second violation unless I can prove that I undertook extensive precautionary measures, which include having my employees participate in training programs that are designed to prevent the sale of tobacco products to minors. I understand that if I commit a third violation, my license must be revoked.

I acknowledge and understand that on February 25, 2010, Local Law 69 of 2009 takes effect, amending the New York City Charter and the Administrative Code of the City of New York regarding the regulation of tobacco products. Beginning February 25, it is illegal to sell "flavored" tobacco products, including, but not limited to, tastes or aromas relating to any fruit, chocolate, vanilla, honey, candy, cocoa, dessert, alcoholic beverage, herb, or spice. Sale of tobacco products containing the taste or aroma of tobacco, menthol, mint, or wintergreen is permissible.
