THE CITY OF NEW YORK
EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMPLAINT
PROCEDURAL GUIDELINES

Overview

These Equal Employment Opportunity Complaint Procedural Guidelines (the “Guidelines”) are designed to assist Equal Employment Opportunity (“EEO”) Officers, Investigators and Counselors in handling EEO complaints and inquiries in a fair, consistent, and timely manner. A person who wishes to make an EEO complaint, or who inquiries about a possible EEO complaint, should be referred to the City’s EEO Policy (the “Policy”) and the “About EEO: What You May Not Know” Handbook (the “Handbook”).

As provided in the Policy, the City prohibits discriminatory employment actions against, and treatment of, City employees and applicants for employment based on actual or perceived race, color, national origin, alienage or citizenship status, religion or creed, gender (including “gender identity” --which refers to a person’s actual or perceived sex, and includes self-image, appearance, behavior or expression, whether or not different from that traditionally associated with the legal sex assigned to the person at birth), disability, age (18 and over), military status, prior record of arrest or conviction, marital status, partnership status, genetic information or predisposing genetic characteristic, sexual orientation, status as a victim or witness of domestic violence, sex offenses or stalking, and unemployment status. Harassment and/or retaliation against a person who opposes or complains about prohibited conduct or participates in any way in the complaint, investigation, or reasonable accommodation processes are also prohibited. The Policy also prohibits the denial of reasonable accommodations for disabilities; pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions; religious beliefs, observances, and practices; or for victims of domestic violence, sex offenses, or stalking that do not create an undue hardship. Persons who claim discrimination in violation of the Policy may file a complaint within one year of the alleged discriminatory incident, with the EEO Office at the City agency where the incident occurred (“internal complaint”) or with a Civil Rights enforcement agency, subject to its filing requirements (“external complaint”).

THE INTAKE PHASE

The EEO complaint or inquiry process begins when a person (the “Complainant”) contacts the EEO Office regarding an alleged discriminatory incident.

The person making the complaint may do so anonymously, if he or she so chooses. Anonymous complaints must be treated the same as identified complaints, to the extent possible.

A complaint may be filed by an employee a former employee, independent contractor, a consultant, a volunteer, an intern, a WEP worker, or an applicant for City employment.

A complaint may be filed on the Complainant’s own behalf or on behalf of someone else.

Supervisors and managers are required under the Policy to timely notify their EEO Office of any alleged discriminatory conduct they observe or become aware of.

Upon receiving an EEO complaint or inquiry, the EEO Office must memorialize the complaint or inquiry and enter it into the complaint tracking system,\(^2\) as well as schedule, by email or letter, an intake session with Complainant, if known, for purposes of assessing or confirming the following:

- Is the complaint timely?
  - Determine when the alleged discriminatory conduct occurred. A complaint must be filed within one year of the date the alleged discriminatory conduct occurred.
  - While a Complainant may not be able to file a complaint and obtain specific relief sought if the complaint is untimely, the EEO Office may conduct an investigation and may make recommendations to address inappropriate conduct.
  - Has Complainant previously filed a lawsuit or complaint with an enforcement agency regarding the same claims of discrimination? If so, the matter must be transferred to the agency’s Office of General Counsel.
    - If an external complaint or lawsuit is filed subsequent to the filing of the internal complaint, the matter must also be transferred to the agency’s Office of General Counsel. The EEO Office must notify Complainant (and Respondent\(^3\), if any) in writing of the transfer.
    - If the Complainant alleges retaliation after filing the external complaint, the retaliation complaint must also be transferred to the Office of General Counsel.
    - If a subsequent complaint involves allegations unrelated to the initial external complaint, the EEO Office may retain and investigate the subsequent complaint as a separate complaint. The EEO Office must consult with the Office of General Counsel in determining whether the

\(^{2}\) The complaint tracking system is available at https://mspwva-dcslnx01.csc.nycnet/Login.aspx.

\(^{3}\) The Respondent is the person or entity alleged to have engaged in the discriminatory conduct.
subsequent complaint involves separate allegations.

☑ Has Complainant previously raised the same issues with others at the agency?
  o Did Complainant discuss the alleged discriminatory conduct with a supervisor/manager, Human Resources, or co-workers?
  o Has Complainant filed a grievance with his or her union regarding the same conduct, practice or policy?

☑ Does the complaint or inquiry raise one or more of the protected categories under the City’s Policy, including when discrimination is based on perception or association (see the Handbook, pages 8-10, for definitions of the protected categories)?
  o If the complaint or inquiry does not raise an EEO basis, the EEO Office should make a referral, as appropriate.

☑ If the complaint or inquiry raises an EEO basis, what specific conduct, practice or policy is the person alleging violates the Policy? The issues raised could involve one or more of the following issues:
  o Harassment, including, but not limited to “the use of vulgar language, abusive acts or language, hostility, physical aggression, intimidation or unequal treatment” based on any of the protected categories (see the City’s EEO Policy, page 3).
  o Adverse employment actions, such as negative performance evaluation or denial of promotion or benefits, allegedly based on one or more protected categories as shown by, for example, discriminatory comments or different treatment of other employees who are similarly situated.
  o Failure to reasonably accommodate disability, pregnancy, childbirth and related medical condition, religion/religious observance, victims of domestic violence, sex offenses or stalking.
  o Retaliation due to opposition or complaining about discrimination or participating in the complaint, investigation or reasonable accommodation process. Retaliatory conduct includes conduct reasonably likely to dissuade a person from engaging in protected activity.
  o Policy alleged to have a discriminatory impact on a protected category that is not job-related or justified by business necessity.

☑ What is Complainant’s status with the agency?
  o Does Complainant work at the agency?
  o What is Complainant’s civil service status?
  o Is Complainant an employee of the agency or different agency or an independent contractor?
    ▪ The EEO Office must contact the EEO Office of the employing agency and coordinate the investigation.

☑ Which person(s), if any, is alleged to have engaged in the discriminatory conduct (the “Respondent”)?
  o Complaints against the EEO Officer and agency heads should be referred to the City’s Law Department or Department of Citywide Administrative Services (“DCAS”).
  o Complaints by employees or others against a member of the public visiting the agency should be referred to the agency’s EEO Officer.
  o Complaints by the public against persons working at the agency should be handled by the agency’s EEO Officer.
  o In the case of complaints against employees of other agencies, the EEO Office of each agency should conduct a joint inquiry or investigation of the complaint.

✓ Is there a specific document or rule that applies to the conduct or practice complained about? For example:
  o Collective bargaining agreements (http://www1.nyc.gov/site/olr/labor/labor‐recent‐agreements.page)
  o Title Specifications and Notices of Examinations (http://mspwva‐dcstso01.dcas.nycnet/TitleSpecs/home.aspx)
  o Agency Code of Conduct

✓ Do the allegations involve conduct which must be reported to or investigated by a different office or agency? For instance:
  o Discipline (Advocate): violations of code of conduct.
    ▪ The EEO Office may rely on fact‐findings of Discipline or may conduct separate or additional investigation.
  o Inspector General: fraud, corruption and unethical conduct.
  o Police/Law Enforcement: criminal conduct.
    ▪ The EEO Office may have to place an investigation or inquiry on hold if the matter is referred to law enforcement.

✓ Is it necessary that action be taken prior to the investigation of the complaint?
  o After consultation and approval from appropriate agency personnel, it may be necessary to provide interim relief to alleged victims of harassment.
  o Interim relief may include, among other actions, temporary transfers and assignment or shift changes.

✓ Inform Complainant regarding confidentiality and anonymity, and the Policy regarding retaliation.
✓ Prior to meeting Complainant, inform Complainant of the right to be accompanied by a representative.
✓ Begin investigation immediately after determining that the allegations raised, if true, are sufficient to establish a case of discrimination under the Policy, that the complaint is timely, and that the EEO Office is responsible for investigating the complaint. Complete an investigation within 90 calendar days of the filing of the complaint.
  o Ensure a Complaint Form is completed, preferably by Complainant although it can be done by the EEO Office, but should be signed by Complainant.
MEDIATION

Mediation is a voluntary approach to dispute resolution in which the parties try to resolve the dispute themselves on mutually agreeable terms, with the help of a trained third party mediator. The EEO Officer may recommend mediation, or either party to the complaint may request mediation.

The EEO Office may recommend mediation at the inquiry/intake stage and/or the parties may subsequently request mediation during the investigation, subject to the approval of the EEO Officer. Requests for mediation must be made in writing.

Mediation may be conducted by a trained third party mediator. The Center for Creative Conflict Resolution, which is part of the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings (“OATH”), conducts mediation free of cost to City agencies and employees. More information about OATH is available at http://www.nyc.gov/html/oath/html/about/the-center.shtml.

Mediation is most appropriate for complaints involving interpersonal conflict, and should not be considered in certain cases, such as when the complaint includes allegations of sexual harassment or criminal conduct.

Mediation efforts must not exceed 45 days from the start of mediation. The EEO Office may extend the mediation for good cause.

While mediation continues, the 90-day period for completion of the investigation is suspended.

If the parties agree to a resolution during mediation, a resolution agreement will be drafted and provided to the parties and the referring EEO Officer. The resolution agreement will resolve the pending EEO complaint. Any resolution agreement requiring agency action or approval will only become effective subject to agency approval. If a resolution is not reached, the matter is returned to the EEO Officer and the 90-day investigative period resumes. The EEO Officer may also determine if an agreement has been violated and if so, whether to refer it for further mediation or declare the agreement void.

A party may withdraw from mediation at any time. The EEO Office may also terminate the mediation process if it deems that the effort has been unproductive. The EEO Office must inform all parties to the complaint, in writing, of the termination of mediation. The notice must also inform the parties that the EEO Office will resume its investigation of the complaint.
INVESTIGATION

- The purpose of the investigation is to determine whether there are facts supporting the allegations of discrimination.

- The complaint investigation should begin immediately after a determination that the allegations raised, if true, are sufficient to establish discrimination under the Policy, that the complaint is timely, and that the EEO Office is responsible for investigating the complaint.

- The complaint investigation should be completed and the Complainant should be notified of the outcome within 90 calendar days of the filing of a complaint.
  - The EEO Office should ensure that a Complaint Form is completed, preferably by Complainant although it can be done by the EEO Office, but should be signed by Complainant, and logged into the complaint tracking system.
  - Complainants should be provided the following upon filing a complaint:
    - a copy of the written complaint
    - acknowledgement of receipt of the complaint
    - a copy of or links to the City’ EEO Policy and Handbook

- Meet with Complainant to supplement or clarify information provided during the intake phase.
  - Confirm if there any persons who witnessed the alleged discriminatory conduct.
  - Does the Complainant have or know of any documents, such as emails or photos, containing information about the alleged conduct?

- Conduct a thorough investigation that provides answers as to:
  - who was involved in the alleged discriminatory conduct;
  - what occurred during the alleged conduct;
  - when and where the alleged conduct took place;
  - the identity of all witnesses to the alleged conduct, anyone with whom the alleged conduct has been discussed, or anyone who may have identified as having been subject to similar conduct as that alleged or who has information concerning any aspect of the alleged conduct;
  - whether this was an isolated conduct or part of a pattern;
  - what impact, if any, the alleged conduct has had on the Complainant and/or the work environment;

- Determine whether the action alleged to be discriminatory was based on a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason.

- Obtain and review any available and relevant notes, recordings, photographs, physical evidence, or other documentation.
Conducting Interviews

- Explain objective of the interview.
- Explain City’s EEO Policy on retaliation.
- Ask open-ended interview questions in a non-judgmental manner.
- Determine what witnesses know based on personal knowledge versus what they have heard.
- During each interview, take thorough notes, as close to verbatim as possible. Notes should reflect the content of the interview, both the questions and answers, as completely as possible.

Notice to Respondent of the Complaint

- The EEO Office must serve Respondent with a notice of complaint along with a redacted copy of the complaint or a summary of the complaint and allegations after interviewing the Complainant. The following information must be redacted: the Complainant’s home address and telephone number, and the name(s), title(s), and division(s) of witnesses.
- Schedule a meeting with Respondent, ensuring that Respondent is informed of the right to be accompanied by a representative.
- Remind Respondent of the City’s EEO Policy against unlawful discrimination and retaliation.
- Inform Respondent of the right to respond in writing to the complaint, and that the response should be submitted as soon as possible.
- Give Respondent an opportunity to offer his/her version of events and any other relevant information, including any witnesses who are likely to have relevant information. The EEO Office should interview witnesses identified by Respondent.

Amending the Complaint

The complaint may be amended in writing, for any reason, prior to conclusion of the investigation and notice of outcome to the parties. For purposes of the one-year filing period, amendments to the original complaint will be deemed timely if the original complaint was itself timely. However:

- If a Complainant, after filing an initial complaint, seeks to file a subsequent complaint based on different facts than those alleged in the initial complaint, the subsequent complaint should treated as a separate complaint.
- If a Complainant, after filing an initial complaint, seeks to file a subsequent complaint alleging retaliation for making the initial complaint, the later complaint should be treated as a separate complaint.
• All initial, amended, and new complaints should be cross-referenced in the EEO Office’s complaint file and the complaint tracking system.

Right to be Accompanied by a Representative

Any person who is interviewed during the course of an EEO investigation has the right to be accompanied by a representative of his or her choice. This includes individuals who make complaints, persons against whom complaints were made, or witnesses. It is preferable that the EEO Office receive advance notice that the person who is being interviewed will be bringing a representative. The representative may not respond on behalf of the party being interviewed or interfere with the interview.

Confidentiality and Record Keeping

Complaints and complaint investigations should be accorded the strictest confidentiality possible. The EEO Office should make every effort to protect from disclosure the complaint allegations, the identity of parties to the complaint and any witnesses. Exceptions include disclosing to persons with a legitimate need to know certain information in order to respond to the complaint allegations or implement interim or corrective action. All persons with whom the EEO Office interacts concerning the complaint and its investigation should be asked to refrain from discussing the complaint beyond their interaction with the EEO Office.

All complaints and related documents, including any investigative notes, records, or copies, are strictly confidential and must be maintained by the EEO Office. The EEO Office may consult the agency’s Office of General Counsel concerning a request to view or have copied, in whole or part, the EEO Office’s files.

Meeting with EEO Office and Obligation to Cooperate

Anyone has the right to meet privately with the EEO Office during its office hours. An employee seeking to meet with the EEO Office at a reasonable time during that office’s hours must secure prior permission for same from his/her appropriate supervisor. Such requests must be granted as a matter of right, but the supervisor may determine a reasonable time for the employee to visit the EEO Office. The employee is not required to disclose to the supervisor or anyone the reason for the employee’s visit to the EEO Office. If appropriate or preferred by the employee, the meeting between the employee and the EEO Office may be scheduled before or after that office’s hours, or during the employee's lunch break or personal time.

All employees are expected to cooperate with EEO investigations. Failure to cooperate in an investigation may result in disciplinary action.

<td>If an employee knowingly makes a false complaint or knowingly provides false information to the EEO Office in the course of a complaint or complaint investigation, such conduct may be grounds for disciplinary action. <tr>
<th>Agency As Respondent</th>

<td>Whenever an agency and/or subdivision of an agency are named as a Respondent in a complaint, the Agency Head should designate an appropriate person to respond to the allegations in the complaint on behalf of the agency or subdivision.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
The final investigative report must be completed and the parties must be notified of the outcome within 90 calendar days from the date the complaint was filed with the EEO Office, unless the time period is extended by the EEO Office for good cause, with written notice to the parties and memorialized in the investigative file and/or the complaint tracking system. The EEO Office must document the reason for the delay, and project a time frame for the completion of the report.

The EEO Officer should routinely consult the agency’s Office of General Counsel on questions that arise while preparing the written report or at any phase of the investigation.

- After all the relevant facts have been gathered, the EEO Officer must prepare a confidential written report on the complaint investigation and must submit the report to the Agency Head for review.
- In preparing the written report, the EEO Officer should determine the credibility of the parties and witnesses, including their motives and biases. The EEO Officer should routinely consult the agency’s Office of General Counsel on questions that arise while preparing the written report or at any phase of the investigation.
- If, based on the facts, the EEO Officer determines that it is more likely than not that the Respondent engaged in unlawful discriminatory conduct in violation of the City’s EEO Policy, the EEO Officer must determine the most appropriate action to be taken in light of the facts and circumstances and make a written recommendation to the Agency Head.
- Corrective action may include measures necessary to address the impact that the violation of the City’s EEO Policy had on the Complainant or within the agency. Disciplinary action must be taken in accordance with provisions of law, rules and regulations and any relevant collective bargaining agreement. Determining the appropriate disciplinary action is often a difficult and sensitive matter with potential legal consequences. Therefore, the agency’s Office of General Counsel, Agency Advocate and/or Labor Relations Office must concur in any recommendation to pursue discipline before it can be adopted as part of a written report.
  - The written report should include a summary of the allegations and responses, a summary of the procedural history of the investigation, a statement of the relevant facts gathered during the investigation, a conclusion/determination and recommendation. Conclusions must be supported by facts uncovered during the investigation.
- The Agency Head must sign each written report and indicate that it has been reviewed and whether the determination and recommendation, if any, is adopted, rejected or modified. After review of the report by the Agency Head, the EEO Office should inform all parties in writing of the outcome of the investigation.

Informing Parties of Outcome

The decision after investigation should be communicated to the parties, in writing, in a discreet and confidential manner, indicating the conclusion reached, whether the misconduct alleged has been substantiated, and the agency’s opposition to that kind of activity.

APPENDICES

The following pages contain templates in the form of sample documents and letters that were developed to promote consistency in the complaint and investigative processes. Although agencies are not mandated to use these specific templates, the information captured in these templates should be considered the minimum requirement.

Regarding the sample final investigative report included here, this format is strongly encouraged in the interest of consistency and clarity of reporting.

All EEO complaints are to be entered in the complaint tracking system.

☑️ It is recommended that this be done immediately following the initial intake interview with the Complainant(s).

☑️ It is required that this be done before the end of the quarter.

SAMPLE H – Notice of Discrimination Complaint

Complainant v. Respondent

On __________________, ______________________________ filed a complaint of discrimination against you on the basis of _____________________.

Date Complainant's Name(s)

You may respond in writing to the allegations contained in this complaint after receiving this notice and a summary of the complaint allegations. Any response you wish to make must be received by the (agency’s) EEO Office on or before _________ (14 calendar days from date of notice).

We have scheduled a meeting on _________________ at the EEO Office [Insert address]. Please call (phone number) immediately if you need to reschedule the meeting. You have the right to be accompanied by a representative of your choice. Please notify the EEO Office in advance of the meeting if you plan to be accompanied by a representative.

Responsibility for investigating this complaint rests with the agency's EEO Office. The complaint process is usually completed within 90 calendar days of the date on which the complaint was filed.

At the conclusion of the investigation, a confidential written report of the investigation will be submitted to the agency head. If, based upon the investigation, it is determined that the City’s EEO Policy has been violated, a recommendation will be made to the agency head that appropriate corrective action be taken, which may include disciplinary action. All parties will be notified in writing of the outcome of the investigation.

A copy of The City’s EEO Policy is attached for your reference. Please review this policy.

Please note that it is a violation of the City’s EEO Policy to retaliate against or harass any person for filing a complaint of harassment or discrimination or cooperating with an investigation of a complaint. Such retaliation or harassment will be cause for disciplinary action regardless of the findings of the initial investigation.
