GSA offers access to a multitude of pre-vetted Multiple Award Schedule Contracts all backed by a Nationwide Network of Experts, as well as a suite of online eTools that you can use to research and acquire the solutions you need.

We will cover the steps for accessing the GSA programs as well as the guidelines for their use. This training will prove especially beneficial to Procurement Officials.

TOPICS: Come learn about all the programs GSA has available to State and Local governments:

Topics include:

- Cooperative Purchasing (for IT products and services, emergency preparedness products and services)
- Disaster Purchasing
- 1122 Program (for law-enforcement equipment and vehicles)
- Public Health Emergencies
- Computers for Learning
- Surplus Personal Property Donation Programs

Also covered are the GSA electronic tools:

GSA Advantage!

GSA's award winning e-commerce superstore the fastest way for you to find sources and select among more than 10 million items from more than 18,000 vendors. Come learn about all the latest updates and enhancements to GSA Advantage and how state and local governments can now purchase directly from this online system.

eBuy, Online Request for Quote Program

GSA's latest online procurement tool, eBuy, allows buyers to prepare Request for Quotes (RFQs) for millions of products and services offered under GSA Schedule contracts to obtain better pricing and increase competition.

eLibrary

A library to provide up-to-date information on which suppliers have contracts and what items are available, by using various search options.
