Special Circumstances Form:

This form is included in the application package available at the DCAS Computerized Testing Centers and located on the DCAS website at http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/html/employment/civilservice_exams.shtml#examinationforms. This form gives important information about requesting an alternate test date because of religious observance or a special test accommodation for disability, claiming Veterans or Legacy credit, and notifying DCAS of a change in your mailing address. Follow all instructions on the Special Circumstances Form that pertain to you when you complete your "Application for Examination."

ELIGIBILITY TO TAKE EXAMINATION: This examination is open to each employee of the Fire Department of New York who on the first date of the computer-based test:

- (1) holds a permanent (not provisional) appointment in or appears on a Preferred List (see Note, below) for the title of Emergency Medical Specialist - EMT or Emergency Medical Specialist - Paramedic; or
- (2) holds a permanent (not provisional) appointment in or appears on a Preferred List (see Note, below) for the title of Supervising Emergency Medical Specialist and is on an eligible list for Firefighter Exam No. 6019 or 6506 or on a Special Military List for Firefighter, Exam No. 2043 in existence on or after July 22, 2009; and
- (3) is not otherwise ineligible

(Note: A "Preferred List" is a civil service list which is only for certain former permanent incumbents of the eligible title who have rehiring rights.)

If you do not know if you are eligible, check with your agency's personnel office. You may be given the test before we verify your eligibility. You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the eligibility requirements for this examination prior to submitting the application. If you are marked "Not Eligible," your application fee will not be refunded and you will not receive a score.

AGE REQUIREMENT: Pursuant to Section 54 of the New York Civil Service Law and Section 15-103 of the Administrative Code, you must be at least 17½ years of age by the end of the application period and, except as noted below, you must not have reached your 29th birthday by the beginning of the application period to be eligible to take this examination. However, you must have reached your 21st birthday to be eligible for appointment.

Exceptions to the Age Requirement:

- Candidates who took Firefighter, Exam Nos. 6019 and 6506 must not have reached their 36th birthday by the beginning of the application period to be eligible to take this examination.
- Candidates on Special Military Lists for Firefighter, Exam No. 2043 in existence on or after July 22, 2009, must not have reached their 36th birthday by the beginning of the application period to be eligible to take this examination.
- All persons who were engaged in military duty as defined in Section 243 of the New York State Military Law (including candidates on the lists noted above) may deduct from their actual age the length of time spent in such military duty up to a maximum deduction of six years.

THE EXAMINATION: The examination will include a computer-based test (CBT) and a physical ability test. You must achieve passing scores on the CBT and the physical ability test in order to be eligible for further consideration in the selection process.

THE COMPUTER-BASED TEST: The CBT is designed to assess important abilities and aptitudes that are required to successfully learn and perform the work of a Firefighter. The test will evaluate basic abilities, such as Reading, Listening, Problem Solving, Basic Arithmetic and related areas. It also will assess the way candidates approach work, interact with others, and concentrate on details.

Before you take the exam, you will have the opportunity to view a computer-based tutorial so that you are familiar with computer-based testing and the various question types. By January 11, 2012, it is expected that the tutorial will be available for viewing on the DCAS website at <http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/html/home/home.shtml>. You are encouraged to view the tutorial.

Note: You are not permitted to enter the test site with cellular phones, beepers, pagers, cameras, portable media players, or other electronic devices. Calculators and electronic devices with an alphabetic keyboard or with word processing or data recording abilities such as planners, organizers, etc. are not permitted. If you are found to be in possession of any of these devices, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded. You must leave the test site once you finish the test. If you leave the test site after being fingerprinted but before finishing the test, you will not be permitted to re-enter. If you disregard this instruction and re-enter the test site, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

THE PHYSICAL ABILITY TEST: Candidates who pass the computer-based test will be scheduled to take the physical ability test prior to admission to the Fire Academy as vacancies occur. The physical ability test used will be the Candidate Physical Ability Test (CPAT), which is scored on a pass/fail basis. This test consists of a series of 8 events designed to assess the ability to perform the physical aspects of the job of a Firefighter. The test events are: stair climb, hose drag, equipment carry, ladder raise and extension, forcible entry, search, rescue, and ceiling breach and pull. A more detailed description of the physical test will be distributed to candidates before they are scheduled for the physical ability test, and is expected to be available for viewing by April 2, 2012 on the DCAS website at <http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/html/home/home.shtml>. You are encouraged to view this information.

You will be required to pay an additional fee of $25.00 prior to taking the physical ability test. Failure to pay the additional fee on the date you are scheduled to take the physical ability test will result in disqualification from further participation in the examination. Medical evidence to allow participation in the physical ability test may be required and the Department of Citywide Administrative Services reserves the right to exclude from the physical ability test any candidates who are medically unfit.

ADMISSION NOTICE: You will be assigned a test date and time at one of a number of testing centers located in the New York City area. You should receive your Admission Notice in the mail by January 27, 2012. Please be sure to read your examination schedule and instructions included in this Admission Notice very carefully. Failure to follow these instructions may delay or deny your ability to take the exam.

If you do not receive your Admission Notice by January 27th, you should email fdnyschedule@psionline.com with your full name and social security number to obtain your duplicate Admission Notice. The duplicate Admission Notice will be emailed to you within 4 business days of your email being received. If you do not have an email account, you may call 1-800-701-0289 beginning February 4th to obtain a duplicate Admission Notice. Please be prepared to provide your full name and social security number when you call that number.

VETERANS' PREFERENCE CREDITS: The New York State Civil Service Law provides that additional points can be added to the final score of a candidate who is, or by the date of promotion expects to be, an honorably discharged veteran or disabled veteran of the Armed Forces of the United States who has served during a time of war, as specified in New York State law. This is only an overview; specific conditions and instructions for requesting Veterans' Preference Credits and additional information are indicated in the Special Circumstances Form included in the Application Package available at the DCAS Computerized Testing Centers and on the DCAS website at www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/html/employment/employ.shtml.

EXAMINATION RESULTS: You will be notified by mail of your test results. If you pass the CBT and the physical ability test and meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for appointment when your name is reached on the eligible list. Use of the exam in hiring is subject to approval by the Court in United States v. City of New York, 07-cv2067. The Court will decide whether to approve the exam following its administration to the applicants.

ELIGIBILITY TO BE PROMOTED: In order to be eligible for promotion, you must have completed your probationary period in an eligible title as indicated in the above "Eligibility To Take Examination" section, and you must be permanently employed in an eligible title or your name must appear on a Preferred List for an eligible title at the time of promotion. Additionally, you must have served in an eligible title or eligible titles for a period of at least two years, unless your probationary period in that eligible title has been waived pursuant to Rule 5.2.4 of the Personnel Rules and Regulations of the City of New York. Time served prior to a break in service of more than one year will not be credited toward meeting this requirement.

Additionally, you must, at the time of consideration for promotion, meet all the qualification requirements for Emergency Medical Specialist-EMT or Emergency Medical Specialist-Paramedic, including, but not limited to, possession of all required certifications. After promotion, you will be required to possess, as a minimum, a Certified First Responder Certification with Defibrillation (CFR-D), which must be maintained for the duration of employment.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE PROMOTED:

Minimum Age Requirement: You must have reached your twenty-first birthday in order to be promoted.

Certification Requirement: You must have as a minimum Certified First Responder Certification with Defibrillation (CFR-D) at the time of promotion. This certification must be maintained for the duration of employment.

Driver License Requirement: You must have a New York State Driver License at the time of promotion. If you have moving violations, license suspension (s) or an accident record, you may be disqualified. This license must be maintained for the duration of your employment.

Medical and Psychological Requirements: Medical and psychological guidelines have been established for the position of Firefighter. You will be examined to determine whether you can perform the essential functions of the position of Firefighter. Additionally, since employees are expected to continue to perform the essential functions of the position of Firefighter throughout their careers, you may be medically tested periodically throughout your career. Where appropriate, a reasonable accommodation will be provided for a person with a disability to enable him or her to take these medical and psychological examinations, and/or to perform the essential functions of the job.

Drug Screening Requirement: You must pass a drug screening in order to be promoted. Drug tests will also be administered to all probationary Firefighters as part of the medical examination prior to the completion of probation. Additionally, Firefighters will be subject to periodic random drug testing throughout their careers.

Character and Background: Proof of good character and satisfactory background will be an absolute prerequisite to promotion. In accordance with provisions of law, persons convicted of a felony or who have received a dishonorable discharge from the Armed Forces are not eligible for promotion to this position.

Residency Requirement: The New York State Public Officers Law requires that any person employed as a Firefighter in the Fire Department of New York be a resident of the City of New York or of Nassau, Westchester, Suffolk, Orange, Rockland or Putnam Counties.

Citizenship Requirement: United States citizenship is required at the time of promotion.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Investigation: You will be investigated prior to appointment and must pay a $75 fee for fingerprint screening. At the time of investigation and at the time of appointment, you must present originals or certified copies of all required documents and proof, including but not limited to proof of date and place of birth by transcript of record from the Bureau of Vital Statistics or other satisfactory evidence, naturalization papers if necessary, proof of any military service, and proof of meeting educational requirements. Any willful misstatement will be cause for disqualification, and failure to present any documents required for investigation will be cause for discontinuance of the investigation process.

Probationary Period: The probationary period is 18 months. As part of the probationary period, probationers will be required to successfully complete a prescribed training course. Probationers who fail to complete successfully such training course may be returned to their previous title.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS:

Late Filing: Consult your agency's personnel office to determine the procedure for filing a late application if you meet one or more of the following conditions:

- (1) You are absent from work for at least one-half of the application period and cannot apply for reasons such as vacation, sick leave or military duty; or
- (2) You become eligible after the above application period but on or before the date of the multiple-choice test.

Make-up Test: You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the test on the regular test date for any of the following reasons:

- (1) compulsory attendance before a public body;
- (2) on-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment;
- (3) absence for one week following the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, child or child of a domestic partner;
- (4) absence due to ordered military duty; or
- (5) a clear error for which the Department of Citywide Administrative Services or the examining agency is responsible.

To request a make-up test, contact the Examining Service Section, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007, in person or by certified mail as soon as possible and provide documentation of the special circumstances.

PENALTY FOR MISREPRESENTATION: Any intentional misrepresentation on the application or during the application, examination, and appointment processes shall result in disqualification, even after appointment, from the position of Firefighter and may result in criminal prosecution.

The General Examination Regulations of the Department of Citywide Administrative Services apply to this examination and are part of this Notice of Examination. They are posted and copies are available in the Application Unit of the Division of Citywide Personnel Services, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, NY 10007
