THE TEST DATE: The multiple-choice test is expected to be held on Saturday, March 4, 2017.

The Notice of Examination is amended to extend the end of the application period from November 22, 2016 to November 30, 2016. Candidates who applied previously need not apply again.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR READING THIS NOTICE IN ITS ENTIRETY BEFORE YOU SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION.

WHAT THE JOB INVOLVES: This is a class of positions which encompasses both managerial and non-managerial assignments. This class of positions encompasses responsible administrative or supervisory correctional work of varying degrees of difficulty and with varying degrees of latitude for independent initiative and judgment. There are various assignment levels within this class of positions. The following are typical assignments within this class of positions. Under direction, Wardens (Correction) Level I assist in the administration of a large correctional facility or command by serving as Tour Commander and/or Commanding Officer of an assigned Department of Correction field command; serve as the Executive Officer of a smaller facility or command; serve as a Training Officer at the Correction Academy; serve in a command function over such activities at a central office unit or Transportation Division; and perform related work.

(This is a brief description of what you might do in this position and does not include all the duties of this position.)

THE SALARY: The current minimum salary is $102,901 per annum. This rate is subject to change.

HOW TO APPLY: If you believe you are eligible to take this examination, submit an application on the Online Application System (OASys) at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs. Follow the onscreen application instructions for electronically submitting your application and payment, and completing any required information. A unique and valid email address is required to apply online. Several internet service providers, including but not limited to Google, Yahoo!, AOL, Outlook.com, and Mail.com offer free email addresses. All new OASys accounts require verification before a candidate can submit an application to ensure the accuracy of candidate information. Verification is instantaneous for most accounts, but some accounts may require up to 24 hours to be reviewed by a staff member and resolved. Email notification will be sent to those creating accounts that require additional documentation before they can be resolved. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account. The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, or a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets.

If you are receiving or participating in certain forms of public assistance/benefits/programs, or are a veteran, you may qualify to have the application fee waived. For more information on eligibility for a fee waiver and documentation requirements, visit the Fee Waiver FAQ on the Online Application System at <https://a856-eeexams.nyc.gov/OLEE/oasys/FAQFeeWaiver.aspx>.

You may come to the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers to apply for this examination online and submit a money order payable to DCAS (Exams) or to submit documentation for a fee waiver.

READ CAREFULLY AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

The centers will be open Monday through Saturday from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM:

Manhattan
2 Lafayette Street
17th Floor
New York, NY 10007

Brooklyn
210 Joralemon Street
4th Floor
Brooklyn, NY 11201

The DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers will be closed on Tuesday, November 8, 2016 and Friday, November 11, 2016.

Special Circumstances Guide: This guide is located on the DCAS website at www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/pdf_c_special_circumstances_guide.pdf and available at the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers. This guide gives important information about requesting an alternate test date because of religious observance or a special test accommodation for disability, claiming Veterans' or Legacy credit, and notifying DCAS of a change in your mailing address. Follow all instructions on the Special Circumstances Guide that pertain to you when you complete your "Application for Examination."

ELIGIBILITY TO TAKE EXAMINATION: This examination is open to each employee of the New York City Department of Correction who on the date of the multiple-choice test:

- (1) holds a permanent (not provisional) competitive appointment or appears on a Preferred List (see Note, below) for the title of Captain (Correction) ; and
- (2) is not otherwise ineligible.

(Note: A "Preferred List" is a civil service list which is only for certain former permanent incumbents of the eligible title who have rehiring rights.)

If you do not know if you are eligible, check with your agency's personnel office. You may be given the test before we verify your eligibility. You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the eligibility requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If it is determined prior to the test date that you are not eligible to participate in this examination, you will not receive an Admission Notice to take the multiple-choice test, you will not be permitted into the test site, and your application fee will not be refunded. If it is determined after the test date that you are not eligible to participate in this examination, your application fee will not be refunded and you will not receive a score.

Note: See "EFFECTS OF A BREAK IN SERVICE" section below.

ELIGIBILITY TO BE PROMOTED: In order to be eligible for promotion, you must have completed your probationary period in the eligible title as indicated in the above "Eligibility To Take Examination" section, and you must be permanently employed in the eligible title or your name must appear on a Preferred List for the eligible title at the time of promotion. Additionally, you must have served permanently in the eligible title for at least 18 months. Time served prior to a break in service of more than one year will not be credited.

Note: See "EFFECTS OF A BREAK IN SERVICE" section below.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE PROMOTED:

Investigation: To be promoted, you must present all the official documents and proof required to qualify.

Drug Testing Requirement: All eligibles for promotion to Warden (Correction) will be required to submit a drug test. Additionally, as a probationary Warden, you are subject to random drug testing during Academy Training. You may again be drug tested on a random basis after your probationary period is completed or as a prerequisite for assignment. Any member of the NYC Department of Correction found in possession of or using illegal drugs, or who fails, refuses, or attempts to evade a drug test, will be terminated. The NYC Department of Correction has a strict zero tolerance policy concerning illegal drug use.

Residency Requirement: The New York State Public Officers Law requires that at the date of promotion, you must be a resident of the City of New York or of Nassau, Westchester, Suffolk, Orange, Rockland or Putnam counties.

EDUCATION REQUIREMENT: If promoted, you will be required to possess, by the completion of the probationary period for Warden (Correction), 60 college credits from an accredited college or university, or an educational equivalent, as described below.

College education must be from an accredited college or university, accredited by regional, national, professional or specialized agencies recognized as accrediting bodies by the U.S. Secretary of Education, and by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education in the United States.

All official documents and proof required to qualify (e.g., transcripts, and/or foreign education credit evaluation) must be submitted directly by the college, university or evaluating service to the Human Resources Division of the Department of Correction before the end of the probationary period. If you have previously submitted a transcript in connection with another Department of Correction promotional examination, you must resubmit a transcript, even if you have not earned any additional credits. Documents will not be accepted from individual candidates.

Any employee who graduated from the Correction Academy (Recruitment Training) will be deemed to have received college credits on the following basis and will not be required to submit a transcript to verify these credits:

Graduation Date:

Before April 30, 1979
April 30, 1979 - August 31, 1995
September 1, 1995 - June 30, 1998
July 1, 1998 - Current

College Credits Earned:

6 college credits
13 college credits
18 college credits
21 college credits

Also, any Captain (Correction) who has successfully completed the Captain's training course at the Correction Academy since April 30, 1979 will be deemed to have earned an additional three (3) college credits.

Educational Equivalent: Each year of experience as a Captain (Correction) may be submitted for 1.76 college credits up to a maximum of 25 years or 44 college credits. Work experience as a Captain (Correction) will be prorated in three-month increments only.

THE TEST: The multiple-choice test may be given at a computer terminal or in a paper and pencil format. You will be informed of the format on your Admission Notice. A score of at least 70% is required to pass this test. Your score on this test will determine 75% of your final score. Your seniority, awards, educational achievement and training courses will determine the remaining 25%. You must pass the multiple-choice test to have your seniority, awards, educational achievement, training courses, and veterans' preference credit, if applicable, credited.

The multiple-choice test is designed to assess the extent to which candidates have certain abilities and technical knowledge determined to be important to the performance of the tasks of a Warden (Correction) Level I.

Task areas to be tested are as follows:

Communicates Information: notifications and communication of information to and from appropriate staff to facilitate efficient work performance.

Inspects, Searches and Patrols: monitoring and supervision of searches of the facility.

Oversees Facility Programs/Services and Inmate Movement: monitoring and follow-up of compliance with various consent decrees as they pertain to inmates and operation of the facility.

Oversees Staffing and Assignments: allocation of staff, change in staff assignments, and monitoring fitness for duty of Correction staff.

Responds to Conflicts, Emergencies and Other Unusual Situations: direction and supervision of staff in conflicts and other emergencies and follow-up procedures.

Reviews and Prepares Forms, Logs and Reports: preparation and review of forms, logs and other reports.

Trains, Guides and Counsels: supervision of subordinate work performance, the provision of training and counseling when needed to subordinates.

The test may include questions which require mastery of technical knowledge based on such material as the Department of Correction Rules and Regulations; Minimum Standards for NYC Correctional Facilities; Policy and Procedure Directives; General Orders; Operational Orders; Consent Decrees; Mental Health Minimum Standards; Health Care Minimum Standards; Court Mandates; standards of proper employee ethical conduct, including the provisions of Mayor's Executive Order No. 16 of 1978 as amended, in effect up to and including August 31, 2016.

The test may also include questions requiring the use of any of the following abilities:

Analysis: identifying problems, securing relevant information, relating data from different sources and identifying possible causes of problems.

Decisiveness: readiness to make decisions, render judgments, take action, or commit oneself.

Delegation: utilizing subordinates effectively; allocating decision making and other responsibilities to the appropriate subordinates.

Development of Subordinates: developing the skills and competencies of subordinates through training and development activities related to current and future jobs.

Judgment: developing alternative courses of action and making decisions based on logical assumptions that reflect factual information.

Management Control: establishing procedures to monitor and/or regulate processes, tasks or activities of subordinates and job activities and responsibilities; taking action to monitor the results of delegated assignments or projects.

Organizational Sensitivity: action that indicates an awareness of the impact and the implications of decisions on other components of the organization.

Planning and Organizing: establishing a course of action for self and/or others to accomplish a specific goal; planning proper assignment of personnel and appropriate allocation of resources.

Sensitivity: actions that indicate a consideration for the feelings and needs of others.

Technical Translation: demonstrating knowledge of the meaning of technical/professional terminology used on the job.

Work Standards: setting high goals or standards of performance for self, subordinates, others and organization. Dissatisfied with average performance.

Written Communication: clear expression of ideas in writing and use of good grammatical form.

Certain questions may need to be answered on the basis of documents or other information supplied to the candidates on the date of the multiple-choice exam.

Warning: You are not permitted to enter the test site with cellular phones, beepers, pagers, cameras, portable media players, or other electronic devices. Calculators are permitted; however, they must be hand-held, battery or solar powered, numeric only. Calculators with functions other than addition, subtraction, multiplication and division are prohibited. Electronic devices with an alphabetic keyboard or with word processing or data recording capabilities such as planners, organizers, etc. are prohibited. If you use any of these devices in the building at any time before, during, or after the test, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

You may not have any other person, including children, present with you while you are being processed for or taking the test, and no one may wait for you inside of the test site while you are taking the test.

Required Identification: You are required to bring one (1) form of valid (non-expired) signature and photo bearing identification to the test site. The name that was used to apply for the exam must match the first and last name on the photo ID. A list of acceptable identification documents is provided below. If you do not have an acceptable ID, you may be denied testing. Acceptable forms of identification (bring one) are as follows: State issued driver's license, State issued identification card, US Government issued Passport, US Government issued Military Identification Card, US Government issued Alien Registration Card, Employer ID with photo, or Student ID with photo.

Leaving: You must leave the test site once you finish the test. If you leave the test site after being fingerprinted but before finishing the test, you will not be permitted to re-enter. If you disregard this instruction and re-enter the test site, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

*Credit for educational achievement will be granted for the highest level achieved and will be granted for only one educational level. Credit will be awarded for a degree awarded or courses completed from an accredited college or university.

Credit will be awarded for successful completion of each training course, approved by the Department of Correction, resulting in a certificate of completion in such areas as Sensitivity, Training, Substance Abuse, CPR, First Aid, Supervision, Conflict Resolution, Report Writing or a closely related area. A maximum of 1.50% will be granted for training courses.

Terms and Conditions Governing Credit for Departmental Awards, Educational Achievement and Training Courses:

- (1) Credit for awards, educational achievement and training courses is granted in one successful examination only, i.e., an examination in which the participating candidate attains a place on the eligible list and from which list he or she is subsequently promoted and passes probation. Credit for awards, educational achievement and training courses will not be split between two promotion exams. If a candidate previously reached the maximum on seniority, awards, educational achievement and training courses for other promotion exams by using less than the full value of an award, the remainder of the value of the award will not be granted on this examination.
- (2) Credit for awards, educational achievement and training courses must be used by the candidate in the first successful examination following acquisition and recognition of the award.
- (3) Each award is creditable as of the date the notice of award is signed by the Commissioner of Correction.
- (4) Only awards received prior to the date of the Written Test will be counted.
- (5) Credit for educational achievement and training courses will be granted only for credits, degrees or courses completed by March 1, 2017. Employees must submit documentation supporting educational achievement and training courses no later than April 30, 2017 to the Personnel Division of the Department of Correction. Documentation submitted after April 30, 2017 will not be accepted. Appeals requesting credit for educational achievement and training courses for which documentation is submitted after April 30, 2017 will be denied.
- (6) The maximum credit attainable on awards, seniority, educational achievement and training courses is 100%. Seniority, awards, educational achievement, training courses and veteran's preference credits will be awarded only to those candidates who pass the multiple-choice test.

EFFECTS OF A BREAK IN SERVICE: The period of a break in service will not be credited toward eligibility to take the exam, eligibility to be promoted or in the computation of seniority credits. Additionally, any time served prior to a break in service or more than one year will not be credited for those purposes.

Time on the Preferred Lists: Time on the preferred list will be credited toward eligibility to take the exam, toward the 18 month eligibility requirement to be promoted, and in computation of seniority credits. However, time on the preferred list will not be credited towards completion of the probationary period.

ADMISSION NOTICE: You should receive an Admission Notice in the mail about 10 days before the date of the test. If you do not receive an Admission Notice at least 4 days before the date on which testing is expected to begin, you must go to Administration, Customer and Exam Support, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, Manhattan, to obtain a duplicate notice. Test site assignments will take your address into consideration, but proximity cannot be guaranteed.

THE TEST RESULTS: If you pass the multiple-choice test and are marked eligible, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for promotion when your name is reached on the eligible list.

CHANGE OF MAILING AND/OR EMAIL ADDRESS: It is critical that you promptly notify DCAS of any change to your mailing address and/or email address. You may miss important information about your exam(s) or consideration for promotion, including important information that may require a response by a specified deadline, if we do not have your correct mailing and/or email address. Change of mailing and/or email address requests submitted to any place other than DCAS, such as your Agency or to the United States Postal Service will NOT update your records with DCAS. To update your mailing and/or email address with DCAS, you must submit a change request by mail or in person. Your request must include your full name, social security number, exam title(s), exam number(s), old mailing and/or email address, and your new mailing and/or email address. Your request can be mailed to DCAS Records Room, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007 or brought in person to the same address Monday through Friday from 9AM to 5PM.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Selective Certification: The eligible list resulting from this examination may be selectively certified to fill vacancies for males or females only based on a bona fide occupational qualification. When the eligible list is not selectively certified as stated herein, appointments will be made without regard to gender.

Probationary Period: As part of the probationary period, probationers will be required to successfully complete a prescribed training course. The probationary period for Wardens (Correction) promoted as a result of this examination will be one (1) year. However, the probationary period may be extended for an additional six (6) months if the educational requirement has not been met, or for other reasons.

Advancement and promotion into this title are subject to the Federal Regulations of the Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA), Section 115.317 on Hiring and Promotion in Juvenile Facilities. As per PREA, the Department of Correction will not hire or promote anyone who may have contact with residents, and who has engaged in sexual abuse in a prison, jail, lockup, community confinement facility, juvenile facility, or other institution (as defined in 42 U.S.C. 1997); or who has been convicted or civilly or administratively adjudicated to have engaged or attempted to engage in sexual activity in the community facilitated by force, overt or implied threats of force, or coercion, or if the victim did not consent or was unable to consent or refuse.

Peace Officer Status: You must satisfy the requirements established by the State of New York for Peace Officers. You must meet and maintain the requirements for Peace Officer Status for the duration of your employment.

Firearm Qualifications: You must qualify and remain qualified for firearms usage as a condition of employment for the duration of your career. The methods, procedures and protocol for the firearms qualification test will be determined by the Department of Correction. A firearms qualification test will be administered annually to determine qualification. In addition, you must remain authorized to carry firearms under Federal and New York State Statutes.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS:

Late Filing: Consult your agency's personnel office to determine the procedure for filing a late application if you meet one or more of the following conditions:

- (1) You are absent from work for at least one-half of the application period and cannot apply for reasons such as vacation, sick leave or military duty; or
- (2) You become eligible after the above application period but on or before the date on which testing is expected to begin.

Make-up Test: You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the test on the regular test date(s) for any of the following reasons:

- (1) compulsory attendance before a public body;
- (2) on-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment where you are an officer or employee of the City;
- (3) absence from the test within one week after the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, child or child of a domestic partner where you are an officer or employee of the City;
- (4) absence due to ordered military duty;
- (5) a clear error for which the Department of Citywide Administrative Services or the examining agency is responsible; or
- (6) a temporary disability, pregnancy-related, or child-birth-related condition preventing you from taking the test.

To request a make-up test, contact Administration, Customer and Exam Support in person or by mail at 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007, as soon as possible and provide documentation of the special circumstances that caused you to miss your test.

PENALTY FOR MISREPRESENTATION: Any intentional misrepresentation on the application or examination may result in disqualification, even after promotion, and may result in criminal prosecution.

The General Examination Regulations of the Department of Citywide Administrative Services apply to this examination and are part of this Notice of Examination. They are posted and copies are available at nyc.gov/dcas and at DCAS Computer-based Testing & Application Centers.
