(SECOND AMENDED NOTICE- DECEMBER 6, 2017)

WHEN TO APPLY: From: March 1, 2017 APPLICATION FEE: $91.00
To: March 21, 2017

THE TEST DATE: The multiple-choice test is expected to be held on Saturday, June 10, 2017.

The Notice of Examination is amended to update the Screening Requirements under the Requirements to be Promoted Section.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR READING THIS NOTICE IN ITS ENTIRETY BEFORE YOU SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION.

WHAT THE JOB INVOLVES: Under general supervision, Captains (Correction) are in charge of Correction Officers assigned to the care and custody of prison inmates. They monitor the supervision of inmates; supervise and evaluate work performance of subordinates; oversee inmate movement; authorize and direct search activities; respond to reports of emergencies; confer with staff of all ranks to give and/or receive instructions and to make and/or receive reports; and drive a motor vehicle. All Captains (Correction) perform related work.

Special Working Conditions: Captains (Correction) may be required to work shifts including nights, Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

Some of the physical activities performed by Captains (Correction) and environmental conditions experienced are: standing for up to 8 ½ hours continuously; walking up several flights of stairs; using physical force to break up fights; when assigned a double tour, working 17 hours continuously; working outdoors in all kinds of weather; lifting heavy objects; moving heavy items; being exposed to fumes from disinfectants and sanitary supplies; wearing bullet-resistant or radiation protective vest; being subjected to close contact with inmates; responding to smoke/fire conditions which may require wearing turn-out gear such as boots, gloves, coats and using a 25 lb. Scott Air pack (Self Contained Breathing Apparatus), when necessary.

(This is a brief description of what you might do in this position and does not include all the duties of this position.)

THE SALARY: The current minimum salary is $80,616 per annum. This rate is subject to change.

HOW TO APPLY: If you believe you are eligible to take this examination, submit an application on the Online Application System (OASys) at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs. Follow the onscreen application instructions for electronically submitting your application and payment, and completing any required information. A unique and valid email address is required to apply online. Several internet service providers, including but not limited to Google, Yahoo!, AOL, Outlook.com, and Mail.com offer free email addresses. All new OASys accounts require verification before a candidate can submit an application to ensure the accuracy of candidate information. Verification is instantaneous for most accounts, but some accounts may require up to 24 hours to be reviewed by a staff member and resolved. Email notification will be sent to those creating accounts that require additional documentation before they can be resolved. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account. The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, or a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets.

If you are receiving or participating in certain forms of public assistance/benefits/programs, or are a veteran, you may qualify to have the application fee waived. For more information on eligibility for a fee waiver and documentation requirements, visit the Fee Waiver FAQ on the Online Application System at https://a856-eeexams.nyc.gov/OLEE/oasys/FAQFeeWaiver.aspx.

ELIGIBILITY TO TAKE EXAMINATION: This examination is open to each employee of the New York City Department of Correction who on the date of the multiple-choice test:

1. holds a permanent (not provisional) competitive appointment or appears on a Preferred List (see Note, below) for the title of Correction Officer; and
2. has held such permanent competitive title of Correction Officer for not less than two years; and
3. is not otherwise ineligible.

(Note: A "Preferred List" is a civil service list which is only for certain former permanent incumbents of the eligible title who have rehiring rights.)

If you do not know if you are eligible, check with your agency’s personnel office. You may be given the test before we verify your eligibility. You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the eligibility requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If it is determined prior to the test date that you are not eligible to participate in this examination, you will not receive an Admission Notice to take the multiple-choice test, you will not be permitted into the test site, and your application fee will not be refunded. If it is determined after the test date that you are not eligible to participate in this examination, your application fee will not be refunded and you will not receive a score.

ELIGIBILITY TO BE PROMOTED: In order to be eligible for promotion, you must have completed your probationary period in the eligible title as indicated in the above "Eligibility To Take Examination" section, and you must be permanently employed in the eligible title or your name must appear on a Preferred List for the eligible title at the time of promotion. Additionally, you must have served permanently in the eligible title for at least three years.

Note: See “EFFECTS OF A BREAK IN SERVICE” section, below.

CREDIT FOR PRIOR SERVICE IN A UNIFORMED TITLE: In accordance with Section 13-153 of the New York City Administrative Code, any member of the uniformed force of the Correction Department who immediately prior to his or her appointment or employment as such, has served as a member of the uniformed transit police force, housing police service, or uniformed force of the Department of Sanitation shall have the time served in any of such positions counted as service in the eligible title in determining eligibility and seniority for this promotion.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE PROMOTED:

- Investigation: To be promoted, you must present all the official documents and proof required to qualify.
- Screening Requirements: Promotion into this title and assignments to any special unit are subject to certain mandated screening and review requirements set forth at Part XII of the Consent Judgment in Nunez v. City of New York, 11 Civ. 5845 (“Nunez screening requirements”), which can be reviewed at http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/pages_from_nunez_consent_judgment.pdf. You must satisfy the Nunez screening requirements in order to be promoted and/or assigned to special units.
- Drug Testing: All eligibles for promotion to Captain (Correction) will be required to submit to a drug test. Additionally, as a probationary Captain (Correction), you are subject to random drug testing during Academy Training. You may again be drug tested on a random basis after your probationary period is completed or as a prerequisite for assignment or promotion. Any member of the NYC Department of Correction found in possession of or using illegal drugs, or who fails, refuses, or attempts to evade a drug test, will be terminated.
- Driver License Requirement: By the time you are promoted to this position, you must have a motor vehicle driver license valid in the State of New York. If you have moving violations, license suspension(s) or an accident record, you may be disqualified. This license must be maintained for the duration of your employment.
- Medical and Physical Requirement: All eligibles for promotion must be medically and physically able to wear turn-out gear such as boots, gloves, coats and use a 25 lb. Scott Air Pack (Self Contained Breathing Apparatus) to respond to fire emergencies as well as be able to don a gas mask in instances where chemical agents may be used in jail facilities.
- Residency Requirement: The New York State Public Officers Law requires that at the date of promotion, you must be a resident of the City of New York, or of Nassau, Westchester, Suffolk, Orange, Rockland or Putnam counties.
EDUCATION REQUIREMENT: If promoted, you will be required to possess, by the completion of the probationary period for Captain (Correction), 60 college credits from an accredited college or university or an educational equivalent, as described below.

College education must be from an accredited college or university, accredited by regional, national, professional or specialized agencies recognized as accrediting bodies by the U.S. Secretary of Education, and by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).

If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States.

All official documents and proof required to qualify (e.g., transcripts and/or foreign education credit evaluation) must be submitted directly by the college, university or evaluating service to the Human Resources Division of the Department of Correction before the end of the probationary period. If you have previously submitted a transcript in connection with another Department of Correction promotional examination, you must resubmit a transcript, even if you have not earned any additional credits. Documents will not be accepted from individual candidates.

Any employee who graduated from the Correction Academy (Recruitment Training) will be deemed to have received college credit on the following basis and will not be required to submit a transcript to verify these credits:

<tr>
<th>Graduation Date</th>
<th>College Credits Earned</th>

Educational Equivalent: Each year of experience as a Correction Officer may be substituted for 1.76 college credits up to a maximum of 25 years or 44 college credits. Work experience as a Correction Officer will be prorated in three month increments only.

THE TEST: The multiple-choice test may be given at a computer terminal or in a paper and pencil format. You will be informed of the format on your Admission Notice. A score of at least 70% is required to pass this test. Your score on this test will determine 75% of your final score. Your seniority, awards, educational achievement and training courses will determine the remaining 25%. Only candidates who obtain a score of at least 70% on the multiple-choice test will be credited with seniority, awards, educational achievement, training courses and, if applicable, veterans’ preference credit.

The multiple-choice test is designed to assess the extent to which candidates have certain abilities and technical knowledge determined to be important to the performance of the tasks of a Captain (Correction).

Tasks areas to be tested are as follows:

Conducts Inspections, Searches and Tours: These tasks involve the monitoring and supervision of inspections of Correction Officers, searches of inmates and tours of a Department of Correction facility.

Responds to Conflicts, Emergencies and Other Unusual Situations: These tasks involve the direction and supervision of staff in conflicts and other emergencies and follow-up procedures.

Supervises and Monitors Facility Activities: These tasks involve the monitoring and follow-up of compliance with various consent decrees as they pertain to inmates and operation of the facility.

Oversees Inmate Movement: These tasks involve the oversight and accounting of, and placement of inmates within and outside a Department of Correction facility, including new admissions, hospital runs, scheduled activities and discharges.

Communications Information: These tasks involve the communication and sharing of information pertaining to the operation of Department of Correction facilities among staff at all levels.

Supervises, Trains, Counsels and Evaluates Subordinates: These tasks involve the supervision of subordinate work performance, the provision of training and counseling when needed to subordinates.

 Prepares, Completes and Reviews Forms, Logs and Reports: These tasks involve the preparation and review of Forms, Logs, Memos and other Reports for completeness, accuracy, direction, and follow-up action.

Performs Administrative Duties: These duties involve the assigning of overtime to staff, overall inmate count and the collection and distribution of forms to Correction Officers.

The test may include questions which require working knowledge or better (without Reference Material) of the following non-exclusive list of sources in effect up to and including December 30, 2016: Department of Correction Rules and Regulations; Minimum Standards for NYC Correctional Facilities; Health Care Minimum Standards; Policy and Procedures Directives; General Orders; Operations Orders; and Mayor's Executive Order No. 16 of 1978 as amended.

The test may also include questions requiring the use of any of the following abilities:

Analytical Thinking: Analyzing information and using logic to address specific work-related issues and problems; involves the identification of problems, not implementation of solutions. Example: A Captain (Correction) might use this ability when gathering information about inmates from staff to analyze a situation.

Judgment and Decision-Making: Reviewing information to develop and evaluate the relative costs and benefits of potential solutions to problems and choosing the most appropriate one; implementing a course of action... determined by thinking analytically. While similar to Planning and Organizing, Judgment and Decision-Making are typically applied over a shorter time frame. Example: A Captain (Correction) might use this ability when investigating infractions, giving recommendations about them and making decisions about an inmate’s situation.

Management of Personnel Resources: Motivating, developing and directing people as they work, identifying the best people for the job; managing employees needed to accomplish tasks. Example: A Captain (Correction) might use this ability when instructing Correction Officers to perform tasks and following up to ensure completion.

Written Comprehension: Understanding the information and ideas presented in written sentences and paragraphs in work-related documents. Example: A Captain (Correction) might use this ability when reviewing documents before submitting them to the Assistant Deputy Warden.

Written Expression: Appropriately communicating information and ideas in written words and sentences so intended audience will understand. Example: A Captain (Correction) might use this ability when writing investigative reports.

Teamwork: Developing mutual trust and cooperation while working together toward the accomplishment of a common goal or outcome. Example: A Captain (Correction) might use this ability when working with Correction Officers to accomplish a task.

Integrity: Acting in an honest and ethical manner. Example: A Captain (Correction) might use this ability when reporting corruption.

Updating and Using Relevant Knowledge: Keeping up-to-date technically and applying new knowledge to the job. Example: A Captain (Correction) might use this ability when reviewing new Department of Correction rules and regulations.

Certain questions may need to be answered on the basis of documents or other information supplied to the candidates on the date of the multiple-choice exam.

Warning: You are not permitted to enter the test site with cellular phones, smart watches, beepers, pagers, cameras, portable media players, or other electronic devices. Calculators are permitted; however, they must be hand-held, battery or solar powered, numeric only. Calculators with functions other than addition, subtraction, multiplication and division are prohibited. Electronic devices with an alphabetic keyboard or with word processing or data recording capabilities such as planners, organizers, etc. are prohibited. If you use any of these devices in the building at any time before, during, or after the test, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

You may not have any other person, including children, present with you while you are being processed for or taking the test, and no one may wait for you inside of the test site while you are taking the test.

Required Identification: You are required to bring one (1) form of valid (non-expired) signature and photo bearing identification to the test site. The name that was used to apply for the exam must match the first and last name on the photo ID. A list of acceptable identification documents is provided below. If you do not have an acceptable ID, you may be denied testing. Acceptable forms of identification (bring one) are as follows: State issued driver's license, State issued identification card, US Government issued Passport, US Government issued Military Identification Card, US Government issued Alien Registration Card, Employer ID with photo, or Student ID with photo.

Leaving: You must leave the test site once you finish the test. If you leave the test site after being fingerprinted but before finishing the test, you will not be permitted to re-enter. If you disregard this instruction and re-enter the test site, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

Terms and Conditions Governing Credit for Departmental Awards, Educational Achievement and Training Courses:

a. Credit for awards, educational achievement, and training courses is granted for one successful examination only, i.e., an examination in which the participating candidate attains a place on the eligible list and from which list he or she is subsequently promoted and passes probation. Credit for awards, educational achievement, and training courses will not be split between two promotion exams. If a candidate previously reached the maximum on seniority, awards, educational achievement and training courses for other promotion exams by using less than the full value of an award, the remainder of the value of the award will not be granted on this examination.

b. Credit for awards, educational achievement and training courses must be used by the candidate in the first successful examination following acquisition and recognition of the award.

c. Each award is creditable as of the date the notice of award is signed by the Commissioner of Correction.

d. Only awards received prior to the date of the Written Test will be counted.

e. Credit for educational achievement and training courses will be granted only for credits, degrees or courses completed by June 30, 2017. Employees must submit documentation supporting educational achievement and training courses no later than August 31, 2017 to the Human Resources Division of the Department of Correction. Documentation submitted after August 31, 2017 will not be accepted. Appeals requesting credit for educational achievement and training courses for which documentation was submitted after August 31, 2017 will be denied.

f. The maximum credit attainable on awards, seniority, educational achievement, and training courses is 100%. Seniority, awards, educational achievement and training...
ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

It is critical that you promptly notify DCAS of any change of mailing and/or email address. You may miss important information about your exam(s). Your request can be mailed to DCAS Records Room, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007 or brought in person to the same address Monday through Friday from 9AM to 5PM.

Requests submitted to any place other than DCAS, such as your Agency or to the United States Postal Service will NOT update your records with DCAS. To update your mailing and/or email address with DCAS, you must submit a change request by mail or in person. Your request must include your full name, social security number, exam title(s), exam number(s), old mailing and/or email address, and your new mailing and/or email address.

ADMISSION NOTICE: You should receive an Admission Notice in the mail about 10 days before the date of the test. If you do not receive an Admission Notice at least 4 days before the test date, you must go to Administration, Customer and Exam Support, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, Manhattan, to obtain a duplicate notice. Test site assignments will take your address into consideration, but proximity cannot be guaranteed.

THE TEST RESULTS: If you pass the multiple-choice test and are marked eligible, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for promotion when your name is reached on the eligible list.

CHANGE OF MAILING AND/OR EMAIL ADDRESS: It is critical that you promptly notify DCAS of any change to your mailing address and/or email address. You may miss important information about your exam(s) or consideration for promotion, including important information that may require a response by a specified deadline, if we do not have your correct mailing and/or email address. Change of mailing and/or email address requests submitted to any place other than DCAS, such as your Agency or to the United States Postal Service will NOT update your records with DCAS. To update your mailing and/or email address with DCAS, you must submit a change request by mail or in person. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Probationary Period: As part of the probationary period, probationers will be required to successfully complete a prescribed training course. The probationary period for Captains (Correction) promoted as a result of this examination will be one (1) year. However, after 6 months a commanding officer may recommend that the employee be granted permanent status. The probationary period may be extended for an additional six (6) months if the educational requirement has not been met, or for other reasons.

The Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA): Advancement and promotion into this title are subject to the Federal Regulations of the Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA), 28 C.F.R. Section 115.17 on Hiring and Promotion. As per PREA, the Department of Correction will not hire or promote anyone who may have contact with inmates and detainees, and who has engaged in sexual abuse in a prison, jail, lockup, community confinement facility, juvenile facility, or other institution (as defined in 42 U.S.C. 1997); or who has been convicted or civilly or administratively adjudicated to have engaged or attempted to engage in sexual activity in the community facilitated by force, overt or implied threat of force, or coercion, or if the victim did not consent or was unable to consent or refuse.

Peace Officer Status: You must satisfy the requirements established by the State of New York for Peace Officers. You must meet and maintain the requirements for Peace Officer Status for the duration of your employment.

Firearms Qualifications: You must qualify and remain qualified for firearms usage as a condition of employment for the duration of your career. The methods, procedures and protocol for the firearms qualification test will be determined by the Department of Correction. A firearms qualification test will be administered annually to determine qualification. In addition, you must remain authorized to carry firearms under Federal and New York State statutes.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS:

Late Filing: Consult your agency's personnel office to determine the procedure for filing a late application if you meet one or more of the following conditions:

(1) You are absent from work for at least one-half of the application period and cannot apply for reasons such as vacation, sick leave or military duty; or
(2) You become eligible after the above application period but on or before the date of the multiple-choice test.

Make-up Test: You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the test on the regular test date(s) for any of the following reasons:

(1) compulsory attendance before a public body;
(2) on-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment where you are an officer or employee of the City;
(3) absence from the test within one week after the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, child or child of a domestic partner where you are an officer or employee of the City;
(4) absence due to ordered military duty;
(5) a clear error for which the Department of Citywide Administrative Services or the examining agency is responsible; or
(6) a temporary disability, pregnancy-related, or child-birth-related condition preventing you from taking the test.
To request a make-up test, contact Administration, Customer and Exam Support in person or by mail at 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007, as soon as possible and provide documentation of the special circumstances that caused you to miss your test.

PENALTY FOR MISREPRESENTATION: Any intentional misrepresentation on the application or examination may result in disqualification, even after promotion, and may result in criminal prosecution.
