You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the Minimum Qualification and New York City Employment Requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If you are found "Not Qualified," your application fee will not be refunded and you will not receive a score. All education, license(s), certification(s) and/or experience used to meet the Minimum Qualification Requirements must have been obtained by the last day of the Application Period.

READ CAREFULLY AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

Minimum Qualification and New York City Employment Requirements: You must be currently employed by New York City as a provisional Transit Railcar Technology Specialist and have served as a provisional Transit Railcar Technology Specialist for at least two (2) years and you must meet the following Minimum Qualification Requirements:

1. A four year high school diploma or its educational equivalent, plus:
 - a. Two years of full time satisfactory experience performing one of the following:
 - i. Specialized work reviewing the design of railcars of moderate complexity; or
 - ii. Supervising and inspecting the installation of electronic and/or electro-mechanical railcar components; or
 - iii. Preparing plans and technical specifications for railcar equipment subsystems; and
 - b. Four years of full time satisfactory experience as a fully trained mechanic in one or a combination of the following fields:
 - i. Railroad power-operated railcar engineering and repair; or
 - ii. Supervision of railcar maintenance, manufacture or installation; or
2. A four year vocational/technical high school diploma with a major sequence of courses in electrical, mechanical or electronic technology, or a closely related field, plus two years of full time satisfactory experience described in "1 (a)" above and three years of the full time satisfactory experience described in "1 (b)" above; or
3. An associate degree from an accredited college or university with a major sequence of courses in electrical, mechanical, civil, transportation or computer engineering or electrical/electronic technology, plus two years of the full time satisfactory experience described in "1 (a)" above, and two years of the full time satisfactory experience described in "1 (b)" above; or
4. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university with a major sequence of courses as described in "3" above, plus two years of the full time satisfactory experience described in "1 (a)" above; or
5. A master's degree from an accredited college or university in one of the major fields described in "3" above, plus one year of the full time satisfactory experience described in "1 (a)" above.

The high school diploma or its educational equivalent must be approved by a State's Department of Education or a recognized accrediting organization. The college or university must be accredited by regional, national, professional, or specialized agencies recognized as accrediting bodies by the U.S. Secretary of Education and by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) (if applicable). The technical, trade or vocational high school must be approved by a State's Department of Education or a recognized accrediting organization (if applicable).

If you were educated outside the United States and you are using your foreign education to meet the Minimum Qualification Requirements, then you must have your foreign education evaluated at your own expense to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation are listed on the Foreign Education Evaluation Guide located on the DCAS website at www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/foreigneducation.pdf. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a "document-by-document" (general) evaluation of your foreign education. You must have one of these services submit its evaluation of your foreign education directly to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services prior to being considered for selection from the eligible list for permanent appointment.

You must select the applicable Qualification and New York City Employment options on your Qualified Incumbent Examination. You have until midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (February 20, 2018) to complete and submit your Qualified Incumbent Examination by clicking on the "Final Submit" button or it will be automatically submitted after midnight on the last day of the Application Period (February 20, 2018). Once your Qualified Incumbent Examination is final submitted, it will be rated based on the information you provided and saved. If you are found "Not Qualified," you will not be able to submit new or additional information about your Qualifications or New York City Employment online. All education, license(s), certification(s) and/or experience used to meet the Minimum Qualification Requirements must have been obtained by the last day of the Application Period.

Residency: City residency is not required for this title.

English Requirement: You must be able to understand and be understood in English.

Proof of Identity: Under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, you must be able to prove your identity and your right to obtain employment in the United States prior to employment with the City of New York.

REQUIRED INFORMATION:

Affirmation Form: The Affirmation Form, which is found online, must be printed, signed, dated and sent by mail to the address on the form. If DCAS does not receive your completed Affirmation Form, your application will not be considered complete, and your name may not appear on the eligible list for this examination.

HOW TO APPLY: If you believe you meet the Qualification and City employment requirements in the "How to Qualify" section, submit an application on the Online Application System (OASys) at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs. Follow the onscreen application instructions for electronically submitting your application and payment, and completing any required information. A unique and valid email address is required to file online. Several internet service providers, including but not limited to Google, Yahoo!, AOL, Outlook.com, and Mail.com offer free email addresses. All new OASys accounts require verification before a candidate can submit an application to ensure the accuracy of candidate information. Verification is instantaneous for most accounts, but some accounts may require up to two (2) business days to be reviewed by a staff member and resolved. Email notification will be sent to those creating accounts that require additional documentation before they can be resolved. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account. The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, or a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets.

If you are receiving or participating in certain forms of public assistance/benefits/programs, or are a veteran, you may qualify to have the application fee waived. For more information on eligibility for a fee waiver and documentation requirements, visit the Fee Waiver FAQ on the Online Application System at <https://a856-eeexams.nyc.gov/OLEE/oasys/FAQFeeWaiver.aspx>.

You may come to the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers to file for this examination online and submit a money order payable to DCAS (Exams) or to submit documentation for a fee waiver.

The centers will be open Monday through Saturday from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM:

You must complete the entire examination by midnight, Eastern Time, of the last day of the application period. If you have questions about applying for this examination, you may contact DCAS at OASys@dcas.nyc.gov.

Special Circumstances Guide: This guide is located on the DCAS website at www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/pdf_c_special_circumstances_guide.pdf and available at the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers. This guide gives important information about claiming Veterans' or Legacy credit, and notifying DCAS of a change in your mailing address. Follow all instructions on the Special Circumstances Guide that pertain to you when you complete your "Application for Examination."

THE TEST: This is a computer-based Qualified Incumbent Examination. Your score will be determined by a Qualified Incumbent Examination consisting of an evaluation of your qualifications and New York City employment status. You will receive a score of 100 points for meeting the Qualification and New York City employment requirements listed above.

You must select the applicable Qualification and New York City Employment options on your Qualified Incumbent Examination. You have until midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (February 20, 2018) to complete and submit your Qualified Incumbent Examination by clicking on the "Final Submit" button or it will be automatically submitted after midnight on the last day of the Application Period (February 20, 2018). Once you have selected the applicable Qualification Option you must indicate how you meet the selected Qualification Option (limit of 1,000 characters). Once your Qualified Incumbent Examination is final submitted, it will be rated based on the information you provided and saved. If you are found "Not Qualified," you will not be able to submit new or additional information about your Qualifications or New York City employment online.

All education, license(s), certification(s) and/or experience used to meet the Minimum Qualification Requirements must have been obtained by the last day of the Application Period.

CHANGE OF MAILING AND/OR EMAIL ADDRESS: It is critical that you promptly notify DCAS of any change to your mailing address and/or email address. If we do not have your correct mailing and/or email address, you will not receive information about your exam(s), consideration for appointment and/or important information that may require a response by a specified deadline. Change of mailing and/or email address requests submitted to any agency other than DCAS, such as to the United States Postal Service, will NOT update your records with DCAS.

To update your mailing and/or email address with DCAS, you must submit the change request by mail or in person. Your request must include your full name, social security number, exam title(s), exam number(s), previous mailing and/or email address, and your new mailing and/or email address. Your request can be mailed to DCAS Records Room, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007 or brought in person to the same address Monday through Friday from 9AM to 5PM. The following link will provide you with the DCAS Data Correction Form: <http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/dp148a.pdf>.

THE TEST RESULTS: Immediately after you have submitted the examination online, you will be informed of the results. If you are found Qualified, you will receive a tentative score of 100.000. At the time of establishment of the eligible list for this examination, your score will become final, your name will be placed in the final score order on the eligible list, and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your final test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for permanent appointment when your name is reached on the eligible list. To learn more about the civil service system go to: http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/html/work/civilservice_1.shtml.

Application Receipt: You will be emailed a receipt immediately after you have applied for the examination. If you do not receive this receipt, contact DCAS at OASys@dcas.nyc.gov. Include your social security number and the examination number and title in your email.

PENALTY FOR MISREPRESENTATION: Any intentional misrepresentation on the application or examination may result in disqualification, even after appointment, and may result in criminal prosecution.

The General Examination Regulations of the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS) apply to this examination and are part of this Notice of Examination. They are posted at nyc.gov/dcas and copies are available at the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers.
