NOTICE OF EXAMINATION

TRAFFIC ENFORCEMENT AGENT
 Exam. No. 6053

WHEN TO APPLY: From: December 6, 2006 APPLICATION FEE: $30.00
 To: December 26, 2006 Payable only by money order to D.C.A.S. (EXAMS)

THE TEST DATE: The multiple-choice test is expected to be held on Saturday, March 17, 2007.

WHAT THE JOB INVOLVES: At Assignment Level I, under supervision, Traffic Enforcement Agents patrol an assigned area in order to enforce laws, rules and regulations relating to movement, parking, stopping and standing of vehicles. They prepare and issue paper and electronic summonses for violations; prepare and issue summonses to pedestrians; testify at administrative hearing offices and court; report inoperative or missing meters and traffic conditions requiring attention; prepare required reports; operate portable and vehicle radios; may operate a motor vehicle; and perform related work.

Some of the physical activities performed by Traffic Enforcement Agents and environmental conditions experienced are: working outdoors in all kinds of weather and patrolling on foot for long periods of time.

(This is a brief description of what you might do in this position and does not include all the duties of this position.)

THE SALARY: The current minimum salary is $25,974 per annum. This rate is subject to change. There are four assignment levels within this class of positions. Appointments will be made to Assignment Level I. After appointment, employees may be assigned to a higher assignment level at the discretion of the agency.

HOW TO APPLY: If you believe that you meet the requirements in the "How to Qualify" section, refer to the "Required Form" section below for the form that you must fill out. Return the completed form and the application fee to DCAS Applications Section, 1 Centre Street, 14th floor, New York, NY 10007 by mail only. DCAS will not accept applications in person from candidates.

HOW TO QUALIFY:

Education Requirement: By the last day of the Application Period you must have a four-year high school diploma or its educational equivalent.

You may be given the test before we verify your qualifications. You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the qualification requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If you are marked "Not Qualified," your application fee will not be refunded and you will not receive a score.

Driver License Requirement: At the time of appointment, you must possess a motor vehicle driver license valid in the State of New York. Assignment to Traffic Enforcement Agent Level III requires a W (tow truck) endorsement to your motor vehicle license. The license must not include any restrictions which would preclude the performance of Traffic Enforcement Agent work and must be maintained for the duration of employment. Serious moving violations, license suspension or accident record may disqualify.

Medical and Psychological Requirement: Medical and psychological guidelines have been established for the position of Traffic Enforcement Agent. You will be examined to determine whether you can perform the essential functions of the position of Traffic Enforcement Agent. Where appropriate, a reasonable accommodation will be provided for a person with a disability to enable him or her to take the examination, and/or to perform the essential functions of the job.

Drug Screening Requirement: You must pass a drug screening in order to be appointed. Incumbents at Assignment Level III are subject to additional drug screening.

Residency Requirement: You must be a City resident within ninety days of the date you are appointed to the position of Traffic Enforcement Agent if:

- (1) You begin City service as a result of this examination; or
- (2) You are currently a City employee and you began City service on or after September 1, 1986.

You must maintain City residency as a condition of employment.

English Requirement: You must be able to understand and be understood in English.

READ CAREFULLY AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

Proof of Identity: Under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, you must be able to prove your identity and your right to obtain employment in the United States prior to employment with the City of New York.

REQUIRED FORM:

Application for Examination: Make sure that you follow all instructions included with your application form, including payment of fee. Save a copy of the instructions for future reference.

THE TEST: You will be given a multiple-choice test. Your score on this test will be used to determine your place on an eligible list. You must achieve a score of at least 70% to pass the test.

The multiple-choice test may include questions which require the use of any of the following abilities:

Written Comprehension is the ability to understand written sentences and paragraphs.

Written Expression is the ability to use English words or sentences in writing so that others will understand.

Memorization is the ability to remember information, such as words, numbers, pictures, and procedures. Pieces of information can be remembered by themselves or with other pieces of information.

Problem Sensitivity is the ability to tell when something is wrong or is likely to go wrong. It includes being able to identify the whole problem as well as elements of the problem.

Information Ordering is the ability to follow correctly a rule or a set of rules or actions in a certain order. The rule or set of rules used must be given. The things or actions to be put in order can include numbers, letters, words, pictures, procedures, sentences, and mathematical or logical operations.

Spatial Orientation is the ability to tell where you are in relation to the location of some object or where the object is in relation to you.

ADMISSION CARD: You should receive an Admission Card in the mail about 10 days before the date of the test. If you do not receive an Admission Card at least 4 days before the test date, you must go to the Examining Service Section, 1 Centre Street, 14th floor, Manhattan, to obtain a duplicate card.

THE TEST RESULTS: If you pass the multiple-choice test, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for appointment when your name is reached on the eligible list.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Probationary Period: Appointees will be required to successfully complete a training course prior to the end of the probationary period. Those who fail to successfully complete the training course will be terminated.

Conditions of Employment: Employees will be required to purchase uniforms at the time of employment. After completing six months of service, employees will be eligible for a uniform allowance. Employees will be required to work rotating shifts, including Saturdays, Sundays, holidays and overtime, depending upon the needs of the service. The work week is 40 hours.

Investigation: You will be investigated prior to appointment. At the time of investigation and at the time of appointment, you must present originals or certified copies of all required documents and proof, including, but not limited to, proof of date and place of birth by transcript of record of the Bureau of Vital Statistics or other satisfactory evidence, naturalization papers if necessary, and proof of any military service and proof of educational requirements. Any willful misstatement or failure to present any required documents will be cause for disqualification. Investigation must be completed prior to appointment.

SPECIAL TEST ACCOMMODATIONS: If you plan to request special testing accommodations due to disability or an alternate test date due to your religious belief, follow the instructions included with the "Application for Examination."

The General Examination Regulations of the Department of Citywide Administrative Services apply to this examination and are part of this Notice of Examination. They are posted and copies are available in the Applications Center of the Division of Citywide Personnel Services, 18 Washington Street, NY, NY.
