A REGION STILL AT RISK

The talk will describe the issues Regional Plan Association will address in its 4th Regional Plan for the NY Metropolitan Region. Founded in 1922, RPA prepares long range strategic plans for the region and advocates for their implementation. The 4th Plan will address a broad range of challenges facing the region, including climate change, growing barriers to opportunity and excessive public sector debt.

Robert D. Yaro is President of Regional Plan Association, the nation's oldest independent metropolitan policy, research, and advocacy group. RPA promotes the livability, vitality and sustainability of the New York metropolitan region. Yaro led development of and co-authored RPA's Third Regional Plan, A Region at Risk, and has authored and co-authored numerous papers and articles on planning and infrastructure for the five boroughs and the metropolitan region.
