BY CAR: From Long Island, Queens or Brooklyn: Cross the East River via the Brooklyn Bridge. Follow signs for Park Row; this is the second off-ramp. (If you end up facing north and the Municipal Building is on your right, you've missed the off-ramp and should now take two (2) left turns until you're on Broadway going south.) Proceed south on Broadway until you see the large brass sculpture of a Bull and the road splits around the park, Bowling Green. You will see the ornate Beaux-Arts building directly in front of you; which will be the U.S. Customs House. There is a parking lot on State Street.

From New Jersey: Enter Manhattan via the Holland Tunnel. Follow signs toward Downtown Manhattan. This will put you on Varick Street, which will change names to West Broadway. This street ends at the World Trade Center at Vesey Street. Turn left; continue approximately two (2) blocks, which should be Broadway. Turn right, south on Broadway until you see the large brass sculpture of a Bull and the road splits around the park, Bowling Green. You will see the ornate Beaux-Arts building directly in front of you; which will be the U.S. Customs House. There is a parking lot on State Street.
