

Recipients of DJJ's 2008 Employee Recognition Awards

DJJ Honors Staff at Gracie Mansion Award Ceremony

On Friday, January 23, 2009, The New York City Department of Juvenile Justice hosted its 2008 Employee Recognition ceremony at Gracie Mansion. The event was coordinated and hosted by Scott Trent, Assistant Commissioner of Communications and Public Affairs.

Staff members recognized for their outstanding service to the people of the City of New York included: Tyrone Davidson, Reverend Miguel Diaz, Jacqueline Gibson, Nicole Smith-Kirron, Gloria Lee, Juan Lord, Susan Lukin, Robert Marceis, Cherry McCuthchen, Torry Moorer, Kim Noble, Alex Parker, William Pratt, Anteneika Reid, Leslie Serrano, Martha Stange, Dorin Walker, the Crossroads Management Team, and DJJ's Strategic Planning Unit.

The Department also presented an agency award for distinguished public service to the youth and families of the City of New York to Reverend Alfonso Wyatt. Andrew Brown, Site Supervisor for Passages Academy at Bridges Juvenile Center was also recognized for his achievements.

The annual ceremony acknowledges the dedication and service that DJJ staff provide to the City of New York and for their contributions in as role models for juvenile residents.

Assistant Commissioner for Communications and Public Affairs Scott Trent said, "Today set a new standard for recognizing the hard work that DJJ employees exhibit every single day, and I look forward to our next Employee Recognition ceremony."

