

DJJ's Chris Love-Fox says goodbye to Department of Juvenile Justice after nearly two decades of dedicated service.

Chris Love-Fox Retires After 19 Years of Public Service to the City's Youth

On Thursday, February 14th, in a surprise event attended by colleagues, friends and family members, Assistant Commissioner for Program Services Nina Aledort presented Crossroads Deputy Director of Program Services Chris Love-Fox with her framed DJJ badge as a token of appreciation for her many years of service to the Agency.

Having begun her career in 1989 as a Community Coordinator, Ms. Love-Fox rose through the ranks to become Deputy Director of Program Services at the Crossroads Juvenile facility before retiring this February, completing 19 years with the Agency.

Assistant Commissioner for Program Services Nina Aledort stated, "Ms. Love-Fox has had the opportunity to positively touch the lives of thousands of our detained youth and she is a role model for them."

Executive Director of Crossroads Migdalia Aldea added, "Deputy Director of Programs Chris Love-Fox has been an outstanding employee who has devoted her life to providing services to the youth of Crossroads. Her dedication and commitment will truly be missed."

Ms. Love-Fox took the opportunity to thank the Department for a fulfilling career experience.

