Residents Enjoy Comedy, Cheer and Goodwill During Horizon Juvenile Center’s Three Kings Day Celebration

The holidays were a little brighter for residents at Horizon Juvenile Center as they celebrated Three Kings Day during an afternoon program on Monday, January 5th.

Nearly 100 juveniles participated in the festivities that included music, special guests, and a holiday skit narrated by Jesus Duran of the Spanish Intervale SDA Church detailing the history of the journey of the Three Kings and the birth of the baby Jesus.

Comedian Angelo Lozado entertained residents as they enjoyed lunch and then received a special holiday gift

The Bronx Hispanic Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with the Spanish Intervale SDA Church sponsored the event. Delilah Ramos, owner of a comedy club on Manhattan’s Lower East Side, served as Master of Ceremonies. President and CEO of the Bronx Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Frank Garcia also addressed the youth on the special occasion, discussing the importance of reflection during the holiday season and opportunities for young people to make positive changes in their lives as they enter the new year.

“The holidays can be a difficult time for juveniles in detention, as they’re not with family and friends,” said Horizon Executive Director Eduardo Marcial. “Today’s celebration gave them an opportunity to celebrate the holiday season, enjoy themselves and think about the opportunities they have to really change their lives during the coming year.”
