

DJJ's Alexander Toney attends his last roll call after a quarter of a century of dedicated service.

Alexander Toney Retires After 25 Years of Public Service to the City's Youth

On Friday, November 14, 2008, at Bridges Juvenile Center in the Bronx, Commissioner Neil Hernandez presented Tour Commander Alexander Toney with his framed DJJ badge as a token of appreciation for his many years of service to the Department.

Having begun his career in 1983 in the aftercare program, Mr. Toney rose through the ranks to Associate Juvenile Counselor II before retiring in November of this year, completing 25 years with the Department.

Mr. Toney summed up his time with the Department by saying, "I would like to thank the Department for giving me the opportunity to work with our troubled youth. The time I have spent with the Department has been rewarding."

At the roll call, his many staff congratulated him on his contributions. Mr. Toney served the City at the Bridges Juvenile Center almost his entire Career.
