

Acceptable Certificate of Correction Form

Effective October 15, 2009, the Administrative Enforcement Unit will only accept the July 2008 version of the Certificates of Correction (AEU2).

The AEU2 is required to certify that all violating conditions have been legally corrected.

Information You Need to Know!

AEU2: Certificate of Correction
Required For Certification Of ECB Violations Only

AFFIDAVIT

1 Violation Information

ECB VIOLATION NUMBER

PLACE OF OCCURRENCE:
(Number and street) (Borough and Zip)

STATE OF COUNTY OF

I, , duly swear and affirm under penalty of perjury, that I am the (check one):

- Respondent named on the violation
- Officer, Director or Managing Agent of the named respondent corporation (circle one)
- Owner of Property but not named respondent (if you are a new owner, attach copy of deed)
- Managing agent of place of occurrence (attach letter of designation by owner)
- Partner of named respondent partnership
- Contractor or other agent of named respondent (attach written authorization from respondent)

False certification is a criminal misdemeanor under sections 28-203.1.1 and 28-211.1 of the NYC Administrative Code, punishable by up to 1 year imprisonment and/or a fine of up to $25,000. It is also punishable with a civil penalty of up to $25,000.

7/08

Questions? Email: OperationsRedesign@buildings.nyc.gov