NYC PENALTY RELIEF PROGRAM FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. What is the NYC Penalty Relief Program?

It's a three-month program authorized by Mayor Bloomberg and the City Council that allows businesses and homeowners to resolve Environmental Control Board ("ECB") violations that are "in default." Applicants can resolve their default violations by paying the base fine and will NOT have to pay additional penalties, late fees or interest. If a violation is associated with a correctable condition, known as a compliance violation, you must correct the condition before you may participate in the program.

2. Who Can Apply for Penalty Relief?

Any business or individual with Environmental Control Board violations in default may participate.

3. What are Environmental Control Board Violations?

It is a violation issued by certain City agencies, including Sanitation, Buildings, Consumer Affairs, Transportation and others. Below are some of the most common violations:

- Dirty Sidewalk
- Failure to Properly Post Permits
- Failure to Properly Separate Recyclable Materials
- Failure to Restore Street Cut
- Illegal Posting of Handbill/Notice
- Sidewalk Obstruction
- Street Closing Without Permit
- Vending Merchandise Without a License/Permit
- Vending Food Without a License/Permit
- Vending in a Restricted Area such as a Bus Stop or Within 10 Feet of a Driveway, Subway, Crosswalk, etc.

4. How Do I Apply for the Program?

a) If you don't know what violation you have, if you are not sure how much you owe, or if you have more than five violations, you can apply for the program online, by phone or by mail. It takes less than five minutes to apply because all we need is your name and address:

- Online at www.nyc.gov/finance. This is the quickest way, and we will process your application even faster if you provide an email address.
- By Phone by calling 311. From outside New York City, dial 212-639-9675.
- By Mail by filling out an application (available for print-out at www.nyc.gov/finance or by calling 311) and mailing it to: NYC Department of Finance, 66 John Street, Room 104, New York NY 10038, Attention: NYC Penalty Relief Program.

b) If you have five or fewer violations and know how much you were originally charged, you can bring the information to one of the Department of Finance's Business Centers in the five boroughs to resolve them on the spot.
