

DEPARTMENT BIDS FAREWELL TO CHIEF CLEMONS

At an official send-off on Nov. 17, Chief of Department William Clemons was honored for his nearly 30 years of service to the Department of Correction. Earlier Commissioner Joe Ponte thanked Chief Clemons for all that he has done for the agency and wished him a happy retirement. In his 29 years of service Chief Clemons climbed through the ranks at DOC. After joining in 1985, he worked in the Brooklyn Correctional Facility, the Manhattan Court Pens, the Bronx House of Detention for Men, the Inspectional Services and Compliance Division, North Infirmity Command, the Transportation Division and the Health Management Division. He was promoted to Captain in 2000 and assigned to the Eric M. Taylor Center.
