IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The New York City Department of Finance sends notices of in rem tax foreclosure actions as required by law (Section 11-417 of the NYC Administrative Code) to parties registered to receive real estate tax and water and sewer bills and to owners at the address of the property as shown on the annual assessment roll.

If you have any interest in a property but will not receive notice from any of the above three mailing files, you may register to receive an in rem notice only.

Please complete this registration card and return it by folding over and sealing.

Your registration will remain in the mailing file until you instruct the Central In Rem Unit in writing to delete the entry.
