

WHO MUST FILE

Every corporation subject to the New York City Tax on Banking Corporations (Title 11, Chapter 6, Subchapter 3 of the Administrative Code) must file a declaration

(NYC-400B) if its estimated tax for the current year can reasonably be expected to exceed $1,000. The term "estimated tax" means the amount of tax the taxpayer estimates to be imposed by section 11-639 of the Administrative Code less the sum of the credits estimated to be allowable against the tax.

NOTE: If the current year's tax is reasonably estimated to exceed $1,000, a declaration is required even if this is the first year of business in New York City for the taxpayer or the taxpayer paid only the $125 minimum tax for the preceding year. Failure to pay or underpayment of estimated tax in these circumstances will result in penalties.

LINE 2 - PAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX

Corporations whose tax liability for the preceding year exceeds $1,000 are required to pay, with the tax return for the preceding year, or with the application for extension of time for the filing of such return, 25% of the tax liability for the preceding year as a first installment of estimated tax for the current year. After taking credit for that payment, and for the amount described in the instructions for line 3, taxpayers filing declarations of estimated tax are required to pay the balance of estimated tax in fractional installments.
