

Important Notice

Belt Parkway Eastbound

Full Roadway Closure

Flatbush Avenue to Mill Basin Bridge

On Monday March 21, 2011 at 11 p.m. the New York City Department of Transportation will begin an urgent repaving operation on the eastbound Belt Parkway between Flatbush Ave and the Mill Basin Bridge. This operation will require full closure of the parkway between Flatbush Avenue and the Mill Basin Bridge and the implementation of a local traffic detour during paving operations. Traffic agents and message boards will assist traffic through the area. Weather permitting, all work will be completed by Saturday morning March 26th at 7 a.m.

Overnight Lane Closures

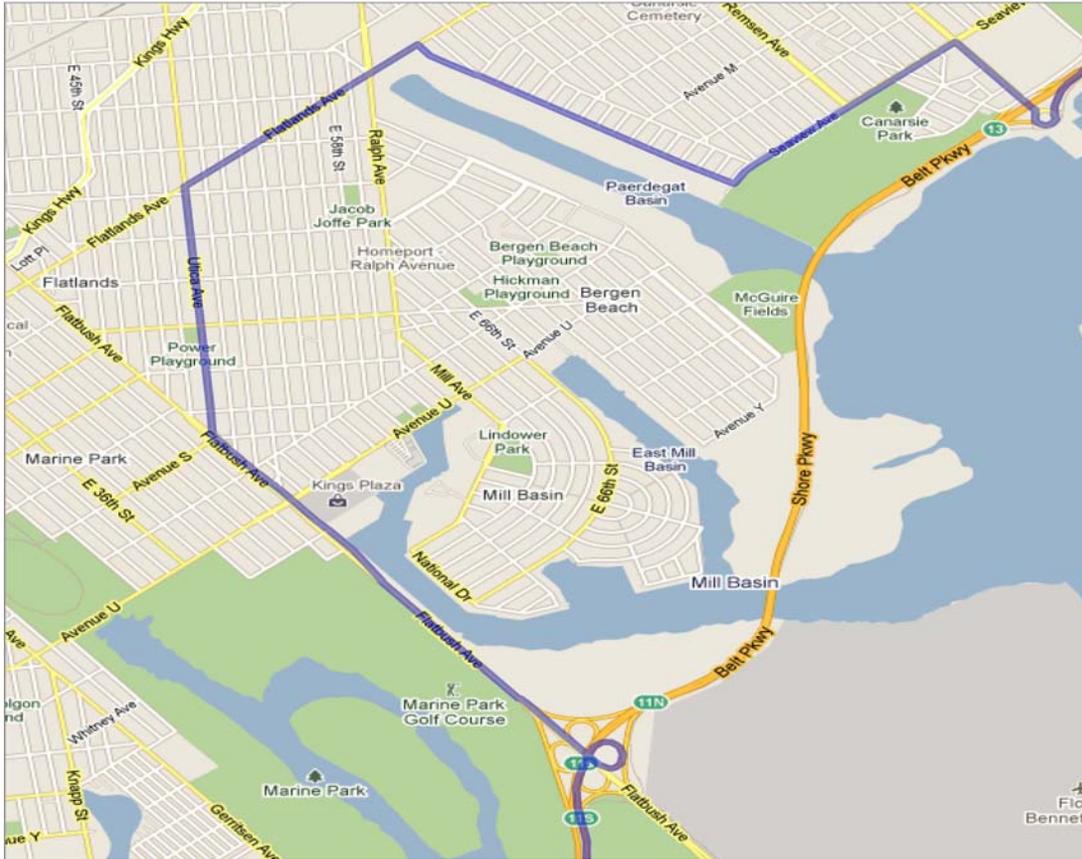

Weekdays - Monday through Thursday:

All east bound lanes closed 11:00 p.m. to 5:00 a.m.

Weekends - Friday evening into Saturday:

All east bound lanes closed 11:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m.

Please see map and detour route on reverse

Detour:

- 1) Exit Belt Parkway at Flatbush Avenue and travel north to Utica Avenue.
- 2) Bear right onto Utica Avenue and proceed to Flatlands Avenue.
- 3) Turn right onto Flatlands Avenue and proceed to E.76th Street/Paerdegat Avenue.
- 4) Turn right onto right onto E.76th Street/Paerdegat Avenue and proceed to Seaview Avenue.
- 5) Bear left onto Seaview Avenue and proceed to Rockaway Parkway.
- 6) Turn right onto Rockaway Parkway and proceed to the eastbound entrance to the Belt Parkway.

Contact Fred Herschkowitz at 212-839-6307 or fherschkowitz@dot.nyc.gov for additional information regarding this project

