

Flashing yellow arrows protect pedestrians and make turns safer.

TURN WITH CAUTION

Wait and allow pedestrians to cross when yellow arrow is flashing.

Expect cyclists to be traveling straight.

Stop for the red arrow.

Enhanced crossings give pedestrians a safe place to cross where there is no traffic light or stop sign.

Slow down as you approach.

Wait and allow pedestrians to cross.

Proceed once all pedestrians have crossed.

YIELD TO PEDESTRIANS, IT'S THE LAW.
