blood pudding by Sharon Bridgforth, Directed by Baraka de Soleil blood pudding is a multi-disciplinary theatre piece that celebrates the history of Black people in New Orleans. Through blood memories of a girl born in Congo Square/blood pudding explores a landscape of magic. In this polyrhythmic telling/the blues is sacred. Narrators are holy. Indigenous people are honored. The drum shapes reality. This is Jazz. Ritual. Theatre.

The xx, Chairlift and Jack Peñate

The xx are making a quick ascension to pop fame with their dreamy, post-punk songs. The British band's 2009 debut, simply titled xx, caught the attention of music critics and fans alike, which lead to sold out tour dates around the globe, as well as wide-spread acclaim. NPR says, —Both casually cool and absolutely magnetic, this young London (band) makes music that's simple and raw, but utterly captivating. Chairlift formed in 2006 to make music for haunted houses (!), but has since abandoned that mission to make cleverly seductive psych-pop instead. Best known for their song "Bruises", Chairlift is part of a collaborative circle of Brooklyn experimental pop magicians including MGMT, Yeasayer, Telepathe, and Class Actress. UK singer/songwriter Jack Peñate pieces together a collage of up-tempo sounds from a myriad of influences. Rolling Stone describes Peñate's sophomore release, 2009's Everything is New, as —a more mature album... that jumps from classic soul to Afropop to Tropicalia with a rock undercurrent. As advertised, everything is new this time around for the twenty-four year old soul-singing Brit rocker. Presented in association with Meanred Productions.

Complexions Contemporary Ballet and Dancin Downtown

Complexions Contemporary Ballet is a company dedicated to removing boundaries and transcending the limits of performance. Artistic directors Dwight Rhoden and Desmond Richardson's lifelong appreciation for the artistic and aesthetic appeal of the multicultural forms the cornerstone of Complexions Contemporary Ballet's approach. Complexions' mix of methods, style and cultures has produced an entirely new and exciting movement: an open, continually evolving form of dance reflecting the movement of our world. Dancin Downtown at the Joyce Theater, produced by Dancers Responding to AIDS is the only competition providing dance students the opportunity to be seen by such a diverse and distinguished group of dance luminaries on one of the most prestigious dance stages in New York City - The Joyce Theater.

White Rabbits

White Rabbits are a six member band featuring two drummers and a piano player that bang out what they refer to as "honky tonk calypso" music. Their cheerful blend of calypso, reggae and ska rhythms, plus secondhand music hall influences and big pop hooks serve to create an upbeat, highly danceable sound. Their first album, "Fort Nightly" was released to rave reviews. With the release of 2009's It's Frightening, the band raises the bar and creates a sound that SPIN describes as, —no frills rhythms peppered with jarring sonics.

7:00 pm – Open Contemporary Fusion class with Darcy Naganuma of Naganuma Dance

8:00 pm – Naganuma Dance

8:50 pm – Paul Taylor II

Paul Taylor II and Naganuma Dance

Paul Taylor established Taylor II in 1993 to ensure that his works could be seen by audiences all over the world, unhindered by economic or technical limitations. To do this, he looked back to the 1954 origins of the Paul Taylor Dance Company for the structure of his new company: six professionals with a particular gift for his style who perform his work throughout the world. The repertoire spans the broad spectrum of his work. Under the artistic direction of the Hawaii-born/half-Japanese Darcy Naganuma, Naganuma Dance is a contemporary dance company that draws upon many different disciplines to create captivating and socially dynamic dance works. Founded in 2006, Naganuma has assembled a company of multi-ethnic and physically tempestuous performers, presenting works that touch upon themes of cultural dissonance, the absolute and the relative, gender and class, through inventive choreography as performed by a cross-cultural cast of dancers.

Bachata Fest featuring Andy Andy, Luis Miguel de la Amargue, Elvis Martínez and Alexandra

Dominican singer Andy Andy has emerged as one of a handful of musicians on the cutting edge of the bachata craze. Andy began his music career as a merengero before making the switch to the increasingly popular bachata style. Luis Miguel de la Amargue, known as the —King of Bachata has taken his music worldwide and is one of the most respected artists in the genre. The multi-award winner and recipient of 2009's —Bachatero of the Year and —Bachata Song of the Year is a genre favorite not to be missed. Elvis Martínez aka El Camarón, is a one of the most popular bachata performers around. He got his start in the 1990's, and has been on the fast track ever since. Martínez has the distinction of being not only a singer but also a songwriter and guitarist as well. Alexandra is best known as half of the hugely successful, Monchy y Alexandra, who began singing together in 1999. They have been often credited with being instrumental in popularizing bachata music outside of the Dominican Republic. Presented in association with Globe Star Media.
