NAACP

Black History Month was initiated on February 12, 1926, by Carter G. Woodson, a pre-eminent historian and founder of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History. He selected February because it included the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass.

For more information on Black History visit www.naacp.org

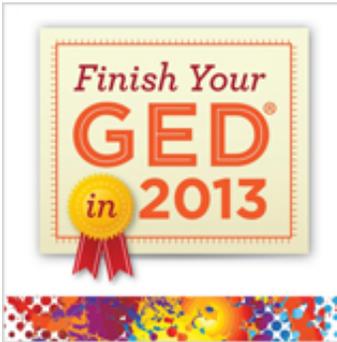

NYC College Line

NYC College Line supports New Yorkers to prepare for, get in to and complete college by connecting them to New York City-based programs as well as useful web-based resources.

NYC College Line was created by Graduate NYC!, the City University of New York, the NYC Department of Education, and the Options Center of Goddard Riverside.

Prepping for the GED

If you are a young adult (between the ages of 17 - 24) and took the GED and passed some but not all parts of the test, you have until December 31, 2013 to re-take the parts of the test that you failed. In January 2014, the test will change and passing scores on the previous test will no longer count. The 2013 GED Campaign to Finish has classes to help you pass the tests you failed. Call 718-557-2525 for locations and for answers to any questions you have.

GLU: GLOBAL THINKING, LOCAL ACTION, UNIVERSAL IMPACT!

GLU is a service program for youth in the New York City area. It will be held during winter break, February 18 - 22, 2013, and during spring break, March 25-28 2013, during the daytime. GLU's goal is to empower youth to be compassionate, confident, and involved in the community. The best part of GLU is that it proves that you don't need to travel far from home to do something life changing.

To sign up, contact the Centro Altagracia de Fe y Justicia at 212-568-2115 or whidalgo@centroaltagrancia.org for more information.

Earn While You Learn

Do you want to earn while you learn? Earn a stipend of up to $260.00 weekly. Learn in-demand technical, financial, and professional skills for 5 months. Year up New York is a one year, intensive training program that provides low-income young adults ages 18-24 with a combination of hands on skill development. To find out if you qualify and to apply visit www.yearup.org

New York Mets

ARAMARK at Citi Field and The New York Mets are seeking qualified candidates to fill part-time seasonal openings. Fast food restaurant experience is a plus and they are looking for candidates with strong, positive guest services backgrounds. If you are 18 years or older visit www.mets.com/citifieldjobs for more information.

Youth Power

On March 25, 2013, Youth Power Systems Advocacy will be having a fun engaging and interactive one-day training for youth between the ages of 14-28 who have interacted with a child serving system such as mental health, foster care, juvenile justice, and/or have a disability. RSVP today and find out your full potential. For more information contact NYC Regional Youth Partner at pgordon@youthpowerny.org or call 347-880-2735.
