

NYC Department of Youth & Community
Development

Jeanne B. Mullgrav, Commissioner

May 2013

Stay Connected

 Like us on Facebook

 Follow us on Twitter

 Watch us on YouTube

 Get Your ID

 Get a Library Card

New DYCD Website launched!

The NYC Department of Youth and Community Development (DYCD) is excited to announce the launch of our new website (www.nyc.gov/dycd)!

In addition to visual enhancements and improved navigation, the new site has specialized information for community-based organizations, and allows users to easily identify local DYCD services and activities, and provides contact and location information for program sites. Added features include an as-it-happens Twitter feed, and a “share” button for social media sites such as Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn.

We invite you to explore our enhanced site to learn more about the wide array of youth and community development initiatives that DYCD supports. We also welcome your feedback – simply click Contact DYCD from the homepage.

Youth Police Academy

NYPD is looking for youth ages 10 through 16 to take part in a six-week Youth Police Academy. Students will attend classroom sessions with lectures, role-plays and demonstrations by NYC Police Officers. Students will also attend field trips and receive a lunch and uniform shirts.

For more information visit www.nyc.gov/nypd

Summer Jobs Deadline Extended!

Apply now for the Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP)!

SYEP provides New York City youth between the ages of 14 and 24 with summer employment. SYEP participants work in a variety of entry-level jobs at government agencies, hospitals, summer camps, nonprofits, small businesses, law firms, museums, sports enterprises, and retail organizations. The application deadline is Wednesday, May 22.

For more information, visit www.nyc.gov/dycd or call DYCD Youth Connect at 1-800-246-4646.

Internship Program!

The Young Adult Internship Program (YAIP) is a 14-week workforce development internship program. YAIP targets young adults ages 16-24, who are not working and not in school. YAIP begins with a two- to four-week orientation, conducted by DYCD-funded community based organizations (CBOs), which is followed by a 10- to 12-week paid internship that offers structured work opportunities incorporating ongoing education, as well as additional participant and employer support.

For more information, visit www.nyc.gov/dycd or call DYCD Youth Connect at 1-800-246-4646.

Become a Mentor

One Hundred Black Men, Inc. is an organization of like-minded business, political and community leaders who advocate for improvement in conditions in their communities. Currently, One Hundred Black Men is looking for mentors for college students and professionals with writing skills.

For more information, visit www.ohbm.org or call 212-777-7070.

College Line

In a collaborative effort with the City University of New York, the NYC Department of Education, and the Options Center of Goddard Riverside and Graduate NYC launched the NYC College Line. NYC College Line helps New Yorkers to prepare and get into college. NYC College Line is a great web-based resource tool for middle and high school youth.

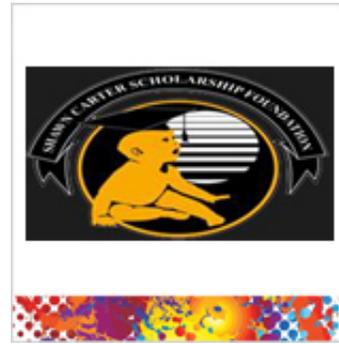

For more information on NYC College line and to locate a program, visit <http://nyccollegeline.org/>.

Brooklyn Library Educational Programs

The Brooklyn Public Library offers free classes for Adult Literacy, English as a Second Language, and Pre-General Equivalency Diploma.

For more information on these programs and much more, visit www.brooklynpubliclibrary.org

Shawn Carter Scholarship

Applications are being accepted for the Shawn Carter Scholarship. Qualified applicants must be a high school senior, college student and/or between the ages of 18-25, pursuing studies at a vocational or trade school.

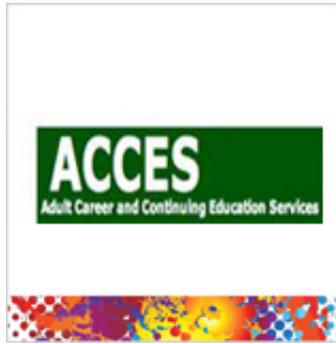

For more information, visit www.shawncartersf.com

CUNY Leads

CUNYLEADS is a unique partnership between the City University of New York (CUNY) and Vocational and Education Services for Individuals with Disabilities (VESID), created to provide students with disabilities the skills to make realistic choices that will result in successful outcomes.

For general questions, please email cunyleads@mail.cuny.edu

Employment Training

Adult Career and Continuing Education Services- Vocational Rehabilitation (ACCES-VR) helps people with disabilities prepare for and obtain employment. ACCES-VR offers career counseling, training at a vocational school, community college, or on-the job training.

For more information, visit www.acces.nysed.gov/vr/ or call 800-222-5627.

CUNY Service Corps

CUNY Service Corps gives students an opportunity to play a role in improving New York City's future, while gaining real-work experience and getting paid. Qualified students from the seven participating CUNY colleges are invited to apply for the fall 2013 program. Participating colleges in 2013-14 include the Borough of Manhattan Community College, College of Staten Island, John Jay College of Criminal Justice, Kingsborough Community College, Lehman College, New York City College of Technology, and Queens College.

For more information about the program and student eligibility criteria, click here

Call YOUTH CONNECT at 1-800-246-4646
Monday - Friday, 9 AM - 7 PM
Email Youth Connect at youthconnect@dycd.nyc.gov
Visit DYCD at <http://www.nyc.gov/dycd>

This is the NYC.gov News
You Requested For:
DYCD Youth Connect
E-Blast

Call 311
24 Hrs/Day 7 Days/Wk

Unsubscribe from this list | Comment on this news service