

THE CITY OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
NEW YORK, NY 10007

Summer 2006

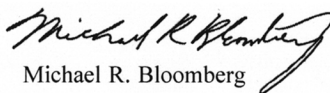

Dear Friends:

It is a pleasure to introduce the 2006 edition of The New York City Youth Guide to Summer Fun.

Summer in New York City is a special time for children of all ages. Whether attending a free outdoor concert at the South Street Seaport, learning to fish at Prospect Park, or swimming at Coney Island, there are hundreds of outdoor activities all summer long for parents and children to enjoy. In addition, there are many opportunities for young people to continue their education with fun programs at our City's museums, libraries, and cultural institutions. With the summer already upon us, I hope you will use this easy-to-read guide to take full advantage of all the terrific youth activities our great City has to offer.

I would like to thank the Department of Youth and Community Development and its partners for putting together this comprehensive guide. From the Bronx Zoo to Snug Harbor Cultural Center on Staten Island, you will find endless opportunities to make this a fun, healthy, and adventurous summer. Enjoy!

Sincerely,

Michael R. Bloomberg
Mayor
