

BROOKLYN EVENT

"I AM"/ THE DAY BROOKLYN GAVE BACK

Date: Thursday, April 14, 2005

Where: St. Christopher-Ottolie Beacon Center
MS 35, 272 MacDonough Street, Brooklyn, New York

When: 3:00 P.M. to 6:00 P.M.

Youth from various Family Dynamics Programs will gather to collectively form one community service task force. Ongoing service projects will be displayed and described. There will be a recognition ceremony, and donations will be presented to various community groups. Entertainment and refreshments will also be provided.

For more information, contact Sherry Ormond or Jamal Harris at (718) 453-7004.

Sponsored by the NYC Department of Youth and Community Development, City Year, and Children for Children, YouthWeek 2005 will focus on youth volunteerism and community service. It will mobilize young people, public officials, civic leaders, and community groups to work together in a series of borough-wide service projects.

Youth will LEARN, SERVE, and REPRESENT their communities.

New York City Department of Youth and Community Development
Michael R. Bloomberg, Mayor Jeanne B. Mullgrav, Commissioner