

Manhattan Waterfront Greenway Map

Greician Temple
 Built in 1925 as a destination for pleasure drivers on the old Riverside Drive, the Greician Temple stands on the eastern ridge of Fort Washington Park overlooking the Hudson River.

Little Red Lighthouse
 Built in 1880, the Little Red Lighthouse is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The lighthouse improved navigation on the Hudson until it was officially decommissioned in 1947.

Cherry Walk
 Stretching from 100th to 125th Street, this segment of the greenway extends more than a mile through Riverside Park. The path is graced by several dozen cherry trees that come to a dramatic blossom each

Hudson River Park
 This 550-acre park stretches from The Battery to 59th Street and will include 13 public piers, a marine estuary, upland parks, a waterfront esplanade and a bikeway.

Harlem River Speedway
 Built in 1898 as a racing ground for carriages, the City is restoring public access to the nearly two-mile Speedway through the construction of bicycle and pedestrian lanes and a waterfront esplanade.

St. Nicholas Park
 St. Nicholas Park includes dramatic rock faces and "The Point of Rocks," where George Washington oversaw the Battle of Harlem Heights in 1776.

Stuyvesant Cove
 At Stuyvesant Cove, visitors can enjoy wandering paths, a new solar-powered environmental classroom and a dedicated bike-way with views of the East River.

The Battery
 Located at the tip of Manhattan, The Battery offers waterview gardens and sweeping views of New York Harbor, the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island.
