

NEW YORK CITY FIRE CODE
NEW PERMIT REQUIREMENTS
(See Fire Code Section 105.6)

Aviation facilities and operations

- Maintain or operate an aircraft-fueling vehicle
- Maintain or operate a seaplane base
- Conduct a helicopter landing at other than an approved heliport, helistop or airport
- Conduct a helicopter lift operation
- Conduct a hot air balloon operation

Combustible dust-producing operations

- Conduct a combustible dust-producing operation

Corrosive materials

- Store, handle or use solid
- Store, handle or use liquid

Flammable solids

- Store, handle or use
- Store, handle and use nitrocellulose products in manufacture

Fruit and crop ripening

- Maintain or operate a fruit or crop ripening facility

Fumigation and thermal insecticidal fogging operations

- Maintain or operate a toxic or flammable fumigation and thermal insecticidal fogging facility

Highly toxic materials

- Store, handle or use liquid
- Store, handle or use solid

Hazardous production materials (HPM)

- Store, handle or use hazardous production materials at an HPM facility

High-piled combustible storage

- Maintain or operate a high-piled combustible storage facility

Industrial furnaces

- Maintain or operate an industrial furnace

Liquefied Petroleum Gases

- Store, handle or use (quantities requiring a permit reduced to more than 400 SCF (47 pounds))

Lumber yards

Storage of lumber at lumber yards

Organic coatings

Manufacture organic coating

Places of assembly

Maintain or operate

Portable fueled space heaters

Store, handle or use

Pyrophoric materials

Store, handle or use liquid

Store, handle or use solid

Pyroxylin plastics

Store, handle or use raw pyroxylin plastics

Use of raw pyroxylin plastics in manufacture of products

Spraying and dipping operations

Conduct a spraying or dipping operation

Tire-rebuilding plants

Maintain or operate a tire-rebuilding plant

Tires, scrap tires and tire byproducts

Store tires, scrap tires and tire byproducts

Toxic materials

Store, handle or use liquid

Store, handle or use solid

Unstable (reactive) materials

Store, handle or use liquid

Store, handle or use solid

Water-reactive materials

Store, handle or use liquid

Store, handle or use solid

Store calcium carbide