

In honor of:

Firefighter Thomas Brick

Academic Scholarships for Firefighters & Fire Officers

The FDNY is now accepting applications for this year's Firefighter Thomas Brick scholarship program, named to honor the fallen firefighter.

College scholarships are available to ALL active FDNY fire officers and firefighters who plan to take one or more courses during the 2009-2010 academic year. Firefighters who participate in the John Jay College Scholarship Program ARE ELIGIBLE.

Six scholarships of $2,500 each will be awarded and can be used for course tuition and textbook costs.

Applications are available on the FDNY Intranet and should be returned to Chief of Department, Salvatore Cassano, by Friday, May 15, 2009.
