

Production Travel Agreement Qualification Form

Production travel is defined as all persons traveling for purposes of the planning, development, auditioning, rehearsal, execution, broadcast or teardown of films/cinema, theatrical, athletic, television, radio or other entertainment productions. Production travel excludes all transient business travel not directly involved in the production aspect of such events; including, but not limited to, business meetings, sales calls, industry conferences, or legal negotiations.

This qualification form must be accompanied by a letter from the production company on its letterhead authorizing the ticketing agency(ies) and their ARC number(s).
