

Woodhull North Brooklyn Health Network
Celebrates
Black History Month
Civil Rights in America

Join us for a conversation with William R. Howard, Civil Right Activist, former staff member and life long friend of Shirley Chisholm. He also served on the Board of Trustees for the City University of New York. Mr. Howard will share his experience and thoughts on the civil rights movement in America.

Also
Musical Selections from the Civil Rights Era featuring
The Healing Humanity Jazz Ensemble with jazz vocalist Ras Chemash Lamed, “The Singing Chef”

Hosted by Buren Figueroa
of the
Men’s Health, Joint Labor Management Committee

Friday 28, 2014
12:00 p.m. -1:00 p.m.
Dolores E. Jackson Auditorium, 3rd Floor
Woodhull Medical Center

Raffle Drawing
Sponsored by Health First

For more information, please contact Cheryl Jones at (718) 963-8640

Woodhull North Brooklyn
Health Network