

The Joint Community Advisory Board of Jacobi Medical Center and North Central Bronx Hospital present

GUN VIOLENCE: AN ONGOING CRISIS

Wednesday, April 3rd
5:30 p.m. Refreshments ❖ 6 p.m. Presentation
Jacobi Corporate Conference Center (Building 4, 2nd Floor)
Jacobi Medical Center

Gun Violence: A Trauma Surgeon's Perspective

Sheldon Teperman, M.D.

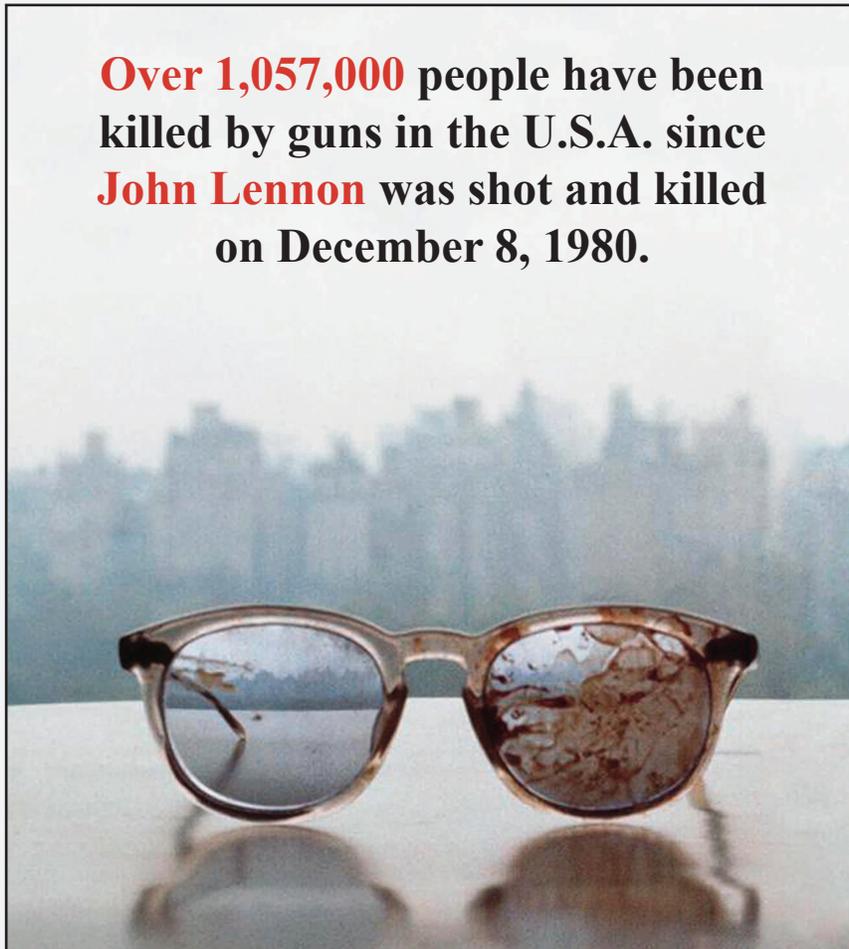

Associate Professor of Surgery, Director of Trauma and Critical Care Services
Jacobi Medical Center

"Guns Down, Life Up" Including a compelling video

Erik Cliette, Director of Injury Prevention, Harlem Hospital Center

RSVP 718-918-3906

Over 1,057,000 people have been killed by guns in the U.S.A. since John Lennon was shot and killed on December 8, 1980.

On March 20, 2013, Yoko Ono tweeted this image of John Lennon's bloodstained glasses on what would have been their 44th wedding anniversary.