THE BREAST CARE
NAVIGATION PROGRAM AT JACOBI MEDICAL CENTER

The Breast Patient Navigation Program provides patients undergoing treatment for breast cancer assistance and support to guide them through the complexities of their treatment course and the medical system.

The program, established at JMC in 2005 under the direction of Maria Castaldi, MD, FACS, with funding from the AVON Foundation, has resulted in improved outcomes and better quality of life for patients suffering from breast cancer.

Jacobi Medical Center has national accreditation as a Breast Center from the American College of Surgeons. The Patient Navigation Program is a subdivision of Jacobi's Breast Center.
