

Metropolitan Hospital Center

presents in collaboration with
Carnegie Hall's Musical Connections Program
Slavic Soul Party!

Performing a special free musical concert

Wednesday, May 9, 2012 at 12 Noon

Metropolitan Hospital Main Lobby, First Avenue at 97th Street

Slavic Soul Party is a popular group of nine musicians with a blend of Balkan soul, Gypsy funk, jazz and Latin music.

"The players have the muscle and know-how to make Balkan sounds crackle with NYC energy... we strongly recommend you witness it live and direct." -TimeOut NY

The concert will include a salute to nurses. All are welcome!

Carnegie Hall's Musical Connections is a program of the Weill Music Institute. Generous support for Musical Connections is provided by MetLife Foundation and Ameriprise Financial
