

Metropolitan Hospital Center presents in collaboration with Carnegie Hall's Musical Connections Program

Sospiro Winds

In a special free musical concert
Wednesday, January 25, 2012 at 12 Noon
Metropolitan Hospital Main Lobby
First Avenue at 97th Street

Hailed as a “superb ensemble,” Sospiro Winds has established itself as an exciting new force on the chamber music scene, and continues its efforts to bring the wind quintet repertoire to audiences throughout the United States.

Carnegie Hall's Musical Connections is a program of the Weill Music Institute.

All are welcome to attend!

Generous support for Musical Connections is provided by MetLife Foundation and Ameriprise Financial