Basic Information

Procurement Title:	Legal Services for Immigrants Workers funded via Community Services Block Grant
Agency:	Human Resources Administration
Agency Email Contact:	cedenos@hra.nyc.gov
Procurement Description:	The Immigrant Services program provides legal services to non-citizens to assist with applications for citizenship, permanent residence, and many other immigration-related legal services. The Human Resources Administration (HRA) is seeking qualified providers to implement the Immigrant Services programs in conjunction with the Mayor's Office of Immigrant Affairs (MOIA) and the Department of Youth &amp; Community Development (DYCD) through multiple RFPs for four different service options. Immigrant Services are funded through the federal Community Services Block Grant (CSBG). The goals of the Legal Services for Immigrant Workers RFP are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>•Educate low-wage immigrant workers about labor laws and empower them to protect themselves against violations of their rights.</li><li>•Resolve issues relating to employment-rights violations affecting individuals or groups of immigrant workers.</li></ul> The program assists immigrants to attain these goals through expert assessment, legal immigration services, and a range of social services provided directly or through referrals. An assets/strengths-based philosophy is required. This approach encourages the worker to help participants assess their needs and build on their strengths in order to reach their goals.
