

NYC's job texting service can help you get employment.
Start using TXT-2-Work in three easy steps!

Sign up by texting the word "JOBS" to 877877, for available positions in transportation, education, retail, healthcare, security, and more.

Get texts about job openings & how to apply. As jobs become available, a text will be sent to you.

Once you get a job, HRA can continue to help you with work support programs, like food stamps and public health insurance, to help you reach financial independence.

For more info visit NYC.gov and search for "NYC Business Link"

Text the word
"JOBS"
to 877877

Txt-2-Work is a voluntary, opt-in service. By signing up, you are responsible for all charges associated with sending or receiving text messages according to your cellular plan. HRA is not responsible for any increases in your cell phone bill that may result from text messages you choose to receive. Your contact info will not be shared with third parties, and you can opt-out at any time by replying STOP to any text received.

Do you get public assistance, food stamps,
or housing assistance in New York City?
Sign up today to start getting job openings texted to you!

TXT-2-WORK

Text “JOBS” to 877877

Some jobs pay minimum wage and many pay more than $10 an hour. It depends on your skills.

Standard text messaging rates may apply. Check with your service provider.