HRA Commissioner Eggleston Addresses Finale of African American History Month Celebration

Human Resources Administration Commissioner Verna Eggleston captivated the crowd in her address at the finale of HRA's annual Black History Month celebration, held February 26, at the Tribeca Performing Arts Center at the Borough of Manhattan Community College.

HRA recognizes African American History Month each year with a staff celebration. This year the theme was: "All About Us."

Some of the highlights of the day included WBLS radio's Ann Tripp serving as the emcee and remarks by radio personality Johnny Allen. Performances included poetry reading, modern dance and a fashion show.
