ABOUT NEW YORK CITY EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

New York City Emergency Management (NYCEM) helps New Yorkers before, during, and after emergencies through preparedness, education, and response. NYCEM is responsible for coordinating citywide emergency planning and response for all types and scales of emergencies. We are staffed by more than 200 dedicated professionals with diverse backgrounds and areas of expertise, including individuals assigned from other City agencies.

The Readiness Bureau prepares the City for emergencies through a continuous cycle of planning, learning, and exercising, using a collaborative and forward-thinking approach.

JOB DESCRIPTION

New York City Emergency Management (NYCEM) is seeking an Exercise Admin Specialist to work as part of the Readiness Bureau to accomplish the drills and exercise program development objectives as outlined in the US Department of Homeland Security's (USDHS) grant funding requirements. For the purpose of this program, an Exercise Admin Specialist is expected to possess the skills, experience and training necessary to allow them to employ a proactive, versatile approach to drill and exercise support, knowledge of the Citywide Incident Management System (CIMS), emergency preparedness planning, exercise program development and implementation, in addition to a wide range of other duties, including records retention, and data management.

The Exercise Admin Program Manager will report to the Exercise Admin Program Manager and will conduct the following duties:

- Develop, implement and evaluate drills and exercises to evaluate the emergency response plans of New York City
- Prepare briefings, presentations and reports that detail the outcomes of respective exercises
- Assist in the development of After Action Reports. Develop improvement plans based on the After Action Reports. Track qualitative and quantitative data and information gathered from After Action Reports and Improvement Plans.
- In concert with city agencies, develop CIMS-specific objectives for all drills and exercises
- Collaborate with City, State, Federal agencies and private organizations to develop and implement exercises and drills designed to enhance respective agency efficiency
- Compile quantitative data from drills and exercises for review and progress tracking
- Coordinate agency support as needed
- Support the unit and agency Strategic Planning process and implementation
- Collect exercise data and information for tracking and reporting purposes.
- Manage Exercise Admin Specialist staff to support in the above projects.

The selected candidate will be assigned to periodic Emergency Operations Center team and will be expected to work non-business hours during emergencies. The selected candidate will also participate in drills and exercises, assist with Ready NY presentations to external groups, and will undertake special projects as assigned.
