Danielle Sullivan, Founder Parents4Parents

Parents for Parents started at the Association to Benefit Children Echo Park site in March 2013. Founders Danielle Sullivan and Miriam Wilson aspired to organize a group where parents, caretakers and guardians can meet at a safe haven of commonness (their children's head start). It has now grown into an aspiring non-profit support organization that strives to be a beacon of aid, resource and think tank for all parents. Parents for Parents hold regular workshops to keep parents informed. Some topics include, The importance of Parent Involvement and Child Development: Milestones and Red Flags. parents4parents@gmail.com

Karen Horry

Committee member Karen Horry gave the committee an update on her research regarding our schools. Karen presented the committee with a preliminary questionnaire to give to principals when invited to speak before our committee. Joe Rogers of Total Equity Now was one of the creators of the questions on the questionnaire and will present at our April meeting. It was also decided that before the Education Youth and Libraries invites principals to our meeting we as a committee should visit the schools in our geographic area.
