General Board Meeting

Wednesday, October 7, 2015, 6:00 P.M.
Harlem State Office Building
163 West 125th Street, 2nd Floor Gallery

The meeting was called to order at 6:10P.M.

Chair: Henrietta Lyle open the meeting

ELECTED OFFICIALS UPDATES

The 32nd Precinct rolled out to the community the “NCO” Program. Officers will be constant fixtures in pinpointed areas in order so the neighborhoods will get to know their regular officer. These officers will be walking the areas constantly.

Rosemonde Pierre-Louis, Commissioner of the Mayor’s Office to Combat Domestic Violence: Will be spearheading a new Domestic Violence, Family Justice Center (satellite) in Harlem Hospital. The Chair of the Health Committee is very glad to have the D.V. Family Justice Center within the confines of Harlem Hospital. October 15th is “Go Purple Day.”

Nina Saxon of the Comptroller’s Office

A new initiative “Take It To Bank”. This will promote better banking in the community. Harlem and the South Bronx will benefit the most from this project.

G. Puello and A. Moore of Manhattan Borough President Gale Brewer’s Office:

NAN will be hosting a debate party on 10/13/15. Voter engagement is down in New York, and it will be a voter registration drive as well

Assemblyman Keith Wright

The African American Day Parade was a success. The HDFC working group continues to work tirelessly of housing issues would like the community to support Tanya Kennedy as a Supreme Court Judge.

Chair: Henrietta Lyle enlightened the community on the status of Council Member Inez Dickens. She also welcomed new Board Members.
