Discussion Item:

Resolution for RTCNYC (Right to Council NYC Coalition) for the Right to Council in housing court for low income tenants facing eviction in NYC. The Right to Council local law seeks to require the Office of Civil Justice to establish programs to provide fair and high quality legal representation. The local law has been sponsored by over 40 Council members and other Elected Officials. Presentation documents will be forwarded by the District Office to Housing Committee members for review and commentary before submission to the executive committee.

Next Steps:

Follow up with Councilwoman Dickens to confirm the position taken.
