

NYC PARKS PRESENTS ARTS, CULTURE & FUN Amy DiGi: Rooftop Painting Workshop

Join artist Amy Digi for an outdoor painting workshop at sunset, hosted in partnership with the Art Students League's Seeds of the League program!

Participants will learn how to paint from observation, plus basics about materials, color mixing and composition. You'll get to take home your painting! Supplies are provided for you. No experience is necessary.

Tuesday, May 19th & Tuesday, June 2nd
6:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Tony Dapolito Recreation Center Rooftop
1 Clarkson Street
New York, New York 10014

Amy Digi is a United States Coast Guard Artist and is included in their permanent collection. She is also an artist in the prestigious Art in Embassies Program. Amy studied at the League and received her MFA from Lehman College and BFA from Pratt Institute. She exhibits prolifically in the New York area.

This event is FREE and open to the public. Space is limited.
E-mail artsculturefun@parks.nyc.gov to RSVP.

Rain or shine!

*Presented in partnership with the Art Students League of New York:
Seeds of the League.*

NYC Parks

